NEW YORK GETTING OUT ITS DISGUISES, ROGERS DISCOVERS

(Special To The News)

NEW YORK, Oct. 27. — The best thing I have seen in a political speech was where Chairman Raskob said he had eleven children. That's wonderful. If more men in politic would raise ch... of "issues" we would have a bigger and better country.

No wonder All wanted to swing him over to his side.

New York is getting their disguises ready, and memorizing the various names they are to vote under all day Nov. 6.

Coolidge gave Mary and Doug lunch, but took nothing off their income tax.

Yours,

WILL.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

It was moving day. An old horse and wagon, piled high with the family furniture, lazily drifted up South street. And on top of the load sat Pa and Maw and the kids.

In all of his young life, Pa Newc fils has seen but one torchlight political procession. What has happened, he asks, at this time? What has become of the old time marchers with their ten-gallon hats and silk capes? And what has become of the transparency, boldly proclaiming the virtues of the party? And he wonders what would happen if one of the old time parades would come up Washington street some fine evening, headed by a uniformed fife and drum corps.

Starting Monday, Walter Winchell, one of the best New York columnists, will write for The News. Winchell is a regular racontuer, and his chatter should prove more than stimulating. By the way, he is the inventor of such phrases as "whoopee" which means anything, and "faw down". Watch for him.

Tuesday morning the whirlwind drive of the New Castle Community Chest will start. This drive, unlike those of the past, will last but two days. Wednesday evening it will close. The city has been districted carefully so that the workers and the citizens will have but little trouble. And when the worker comes to your door, give, so that the charitable and social service institutions of New Castle can continue the good work for another year.

How many children get hysterical in elevators? Well, just ask any elevator boy. They will tell you that going up is fine; the children seem to like it, but going down is a different story. That sinking feeling evidently does not rest well in the pit of young tummies. Nine out of every ten (a much better average than four out of every five) squawk with all their might until the bottom floor is reached.

Whoopee makers in New Castle are growing fewer and fewer, declares Chief of Police C. C. Horner. Earlier in the century, when the present police chief was pounding the pavements, things were vastly different. Then it was that over a week-end, 60 or more drunks would be rounded up and put in the jail house. And now it is a bad week-end when they pick up six. Well, times have changed and undoubtedly national prohibition has done quite a bit of good.

Today a piece of the most modern fire fighting apparatus will be brought to New Castle and will be used by the New Castle fire department. The citizenry is assured of even better protection than before.

America, say, prominent psychiatrists, is becoming a nation of neurotics. They have the speed phobia, or mania, or what you will. What of it? History will show that the most prominent men, the most famous men, all were neurotic. Which proves exactly nothing.

Christmas is not so far away. In fact, it is almost Christmas up at 8½ East street, where the Lawrence County Tuberculosis society is even now getting ready Christmas seals, which will be sent to the people of the county next month.

Cars leaving this morning for the game at Washington were bedecked in a gala style. Pa Newc saw several cars decorated leaving before eight o'clock this morning. We imagine there will be quite a parade in Washington along about 1 o'clock today.

Pa Newc observes: house with a portentous sign stating "no agents are wanted". Nothing new here, anybody knows that; People jamming

Graf Zeppelin Start Delayed Until Monday

Weather Causes Delay In Plan For Return Trip To Germany

HAD EXPECTED TO LEAVE LATE SATURDAY

Work Of Refueling Zeppelin Is In Progress; Passengers Are Ready

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The latest weather reports from Washington today beleaguered the silvery gray Graf Zeppelin in her hangar at Lakehurst until Monday night or Tuesday morning.

Although she will be refueled and regassed by noon tomorrow, it was believed impossible to take her from her haven on the windswept plateau of the naval air station, Captain Ernest Lehmann, first officer of the ship, announced from his suite at the Warwick Hotel.

Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the airship, plans to leave New York for Lakehurst tomorrow noon. Passengers have already been apprised of the "zero hour", and those not in the vicinity of the hangar will leave for Lakehurst tonight or early tomorrow.

Start Refueling

Lieut.-Commander Zeno W. Wicks, in charge of refuelling and regassing the huge airship, started filling the hydrogen bags and blau gas cells immediately after the mid-western trip was called off yesterday. Twenty-one thousand cubic meters of blau gas is flowing into the fuel units of the ship and 10,000 cubic meters are already stowed there.

"If weather conditions are good we will walk the ship from the hangar tomorrow afternoon," Dr. Eckener said, "and if other things are in order we will begin our belated trip back. Of course, there are so many unforeseen circumstances that may arise that one cannot say definitely. However, we want to get away as soon as possible."

Two Break Jail At Edwardsville

One Sentenced To Be Hanged; Saw Way Out Of Illinois Jail

NO TRACE OF MEN HAS YET BEEN FOUND

(International News Service)

EDWARDSVILLE Ill., Oct. 27.—Two desperate criminals, one sentenced to hang, the other a former member of the notorious Charlie Bigger gang of Southern Illinois, and who is scheduled to go to trial for murder, escaped from the Madison county jail here today. The men are Freddie Wotten, bad man of the south and Mike Kurant.

The bars of their cells had been sawed and also bars upon an outside window.

Girl Bandit In Gary Hold-Up

Bank Is Robbed In Daring Daylight Hold-Up Of $40,000

(International News Service)

GARY, Ind., Oct. 27—Two airplanes and six police automobiles all heavily armed, were today searching northern Indiana for a girl bandit and four male companions who held up and robbed the Glen Park State Bank of $40,000 in cash and securities.

The girl with her companions drove up to the bank in two cars just before the closing hour. Three men without masks ran into the bank and after knocking two clerks unconscious held eight persons at bay with sawed-off shot guns meanwhile scooping up all cash and negotiable material in sight, and then ran to their machines and dashed away.

Within an hour two airplanes from the air port were covering the country east and west and south while the land net was thrown out far enough to cut off escape.

The two men struck down by the bandits were not seriously injured.

PRESIDENTIAL ROMANCE IN MEXICO?

There's to be romance in official circles of Mexico before Plutarco Calles, retiring president, turns over the executive chair to Portes Gil, according to reports from the Mexican capital. Persistent rumors say that Senorito Leonor Llorente, above, a member of Mexican society, and talented singer, will soon be wedded to President Calles. If so, the singer will become first lady of Mexico for the short while Calles remains in office—to Dec. 1.

Radio Onslaught As Final Drive For Presidency

Republican Nominee To Take To Air Twice During Pre-Election Days

MANY NOTABLES WILL ALSO SPEAK

Hoover Preparing For Start Of Trip Across Continent To Vote

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON.
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON Oct. 27.—The greatest radio onslaught in history will feature Herbert Hoover's final drive for the presidency, it was announced today at Republican headquarters.

The Republican nominee will take to the air twice in the last ten days of the campaign while other ranking Republican leaders will speak day and night from now until the election Tuesday, a week. Hoover will be aided "on the air" by such national celebrities as Charles Evans Hughes, Andrew W. Mellon, Senator William E. Borah, Billy Sunday the noted evangelist, Julius Rosenwald, the merchant prince, besides a host of others.

Fearful of Politics.

The American people, at least those owning radio sets, probably will get a real "earful" of politics in the last ten days of the campaign with Hoover, Hughes, Borah and Sunday opposing such noted Democrats as Governor Al Smith, John W. Davis, James M. Cox, Clarence Darrow, the famous lawyer and many others.

Hoover will headline the Republican broadcasting with a prepared speech at St. Louis Friday night and a brief talk from his home in Palo Alto, Calif., on the Monday night before election. Hughes will speak in Brooklyn Thursday night and Mellon here Monday night. Borah has been given the honor of virtually closing the campaign with a 90 minute radio speech Saturday night to be broadcasted by a national network of stations.

Nominee to Rest.

The nominee meanwhile will rest at his home here when not greeting callers at his headquarters until he departs for the west Thursday. From St. Louis he will speed directly to his California home in order to set an example to the rest of the country by voting on election day. The trip west will not be in the nature of a politi-

Shooting Wife Was Accidental

Butler Man Will Offer Accident As His Defense, He Says

NEVER TOUCHED GUN, GARAGE MAN AVERS

(International News Service)

BUTLER, Pa., Oct. 27.—Earl Jones, 38, the Butler garage owner who is charged with shooting his wife to death and then burning the body in a deserted cabin near here, will base his defense on the story that the shooting was an accident, according to plans prepared today by his attorney, E. S. Negley, of Butler.

Negley said Jones told him that he never touched the revolver with which his wife was killed. He scuffled with her when she threatened him with the revolver, Jones told Negley, and the gun was discharged. This statement is a repudiation of the confession which county authorities said Jones made. In the alleged confession Jones admitted the shooting and burning.

It was indicated that Jones' defense will intimate that fear and terror caused him to hide facts in the case until detectives traced the murder to him. Negley wouldn't reveal what Jones told him concerning disposal of the body after the shooting in the Jones home.

Jones will be arraigned before Alderman Carl G. Phillips next Tuesday. Negley is undecided whether he will waive a preliminary hearing.

The coroner's inquest into the death of Mrs. Jones has not yet been set. Formal identification of the burned body as that of Mrs. Jones will be made then.

Hold Car Driver Who Killed Girls

Johnstown Man Runs Into Hallowe'en Party; Two Are Killed

(International News Service)

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Oct. 27.—Harry Gray of near here was held today by state motor patrolmen as the driver of a machine that struck a Sunday school class of small girls returning from a Hallowe'en party last night resulting in the death of two girls.

The victims were Thelma Gallagher, 11, and Gladys Horner, 13. The Gallagher girl was dead when brought to Memorial hospital last night. The Horner girl died this morning at Mercy hospital from a fractured skull.

Gray stated he came upon the group of children just as another car approached. In an effort to avoid striking the girls and the oncoming machine he swerved off the road striking a telephone pole.

Governor Smith Speaks Tonight In Philadelphia

Leaves New York For Invasion Of Pennsylvania And Eastern States

GREAT RECEPTION BEING PLANNED

Smith To Head Parade Through Philadelphia This Afternoon

By GEORGE R. HOLMES.
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 27.—The fourth and final phase of Governer Al Smith's thrust for the presidency opens today in the ancient Republican stronghold of Pennsylvania.

The west, with its big sectional problem of farm relief; the border states, where the religious and prohibition issues flame brightest; and New England, where industrial conditions are possibly worse than anywhere else in the country, are now behind him. Governor Smith has campaigned them all—and he is confident.

He begins his ten days' conquest of the middle Atlantic states, with their Hodge-Podge of issues, today in a hopeful and satisfied frame of mind.

Leaves New York

The Democratic nominee leaves New York today for his final thrust in the middle Atlantic states—Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland and his own New York—hopeful and exceedingly confident. For the next ten days his activities and his speeches will be confined to this quartette of states whose electoral votes total 105.

The governor will make his bid for Pennsylvania tonight with a speech in Philadelphia, possibly the most consistent Republican city in the entire country. He will speak there at the arena tonight after a parade through the city and advance indications are that, however Republican the city may be, it is nevertheless going to give "Al" a great reception.

Brings Broad Smile

To veteran politicians, the suggestion that a Democratic presidential candidate may carry Pennsylvania brings a broad smile. No Democrat has ever carried it in a national election.

But, Governor Smith believes he has a chance for the state's 38 electoral votes. So do some of his associates as attested by the fact that the Democratic national management has spent considerable sums of money in the state in the past few weeks.

And with characteristic audacity Governor Smith chose as the spot for his Pennsylvania bid the city of Philadelphia, the bailiwick of the remarkable Vare machine, which annually, semi-annually and quadrennially, rolls up such enormous Republican majorities that it overcomes whatever G. O. P. disaffection there may be out-side.

Governor Smith will leave New York at 1:30 o'clock on the Pennsylvania Railroad for Philadelphia. He detrains at Camden, N. J., at 3:50 o'clock this afternoon for a parade through that Republican city before

All Must Vote Before 7 O'clock

Only Those In Election Booths Can Cast Ballots After 7 O'clock

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2—Only four persons who have been handed ballots and those in election booths may vote after the polls close at 7 p. m. on election night, according to a ruling of the judges of common pleas court enbanc.

Politicians sought to have all those in line permitted to cast their votes in case they were unable to do so before the polls closed. It is feared the unusual large enrollment may not give all citizens sufficient time to vote. The judges, however, held they were powerless to go beyond the law.

THREATENING WEATHER FOR HIGH SCHOOL GAME

(Special To The News)

WASHINGTON, Pa., Oct. 27.—As the time for the game between New Castle High school and Washington High school football teams on Washington and Jefferson College field, neared this afternoon, there were indications of a drizzling rain during the contest.

Weather conditions had been threatening all morning.

When the New Castle special train came in, the Washington High school band and the American Legion drum corps, headed a reception and parade to the George Washington hotel, where the New Castle team was quartered.

New Castle has a large delegation here to support the team. With the exception of DiCarbo and Alexander, the New Castle team is in good condition for the game.

Three Hundred Workers Ready For Campaign For Community Chest

Two-Day City-Wide Drive Starts Early Tuesday Morning

Enthusiasm Shown At Meeting At Cathedral Friday Evening

With almost $49,000 yet to be subscribed before the 1928-1929 Community Chest of New Castle can be called a success and the budget of $80,000 be realized, over 300 men and women, confident of their success in the project and filled with the fire of civic betterment, Tuesday morning will start a two day whirlwind campaign of general solicitation, during which time the city of New Castle will be covered thoroughly and householder will be given a chance to do his bit for the nine charity and social service organizations of the city.

Over 300 men and women, representing the public spirited citizens of the community, attended the first dinner meeting of the team captains and workers, which took place Friday evening in the east dining room of The Cathedral, and over 300 men and women, determined to do their share of the work, pledged themselves to have $80,000 in the Chest

CRASHES INTO REAR OF MOVING FREIGHT

Rooters Were On Way To Michigan - Wisconsin Grid Struggle

(International News Service)

KENDALLVILLE, Ind., Oct. 27.—An east bound Wabash special football passenger train carrying scores of University of Wisconsin rooters to Ann Arbor, Michigan, for the annual Wisconsin-Michigan football game this afternoon, narrowly escaped dsaster at Helmer, Ind., 12 miles northeast of here early today when the train rammed the rear end of a freight train that was pulling on to a siding.

The accident happened on a curve while the football special was travelling 35 miles an hour. The engineer, A. McAhaney of Montpelier, Ohio, slammed on the brakes and stuck to his post. His Fireman, C. R. Goshorn, also of Montpelier, jumped and was painfully injured.

None Injured

The members of the Wisconsin football team already were in Ann Arbor when the special was wrecked. They had gone there yesterday.

FIERCE ATLANTIC GALE DELAYS OCEAN LINERS

(International News Service)

LONDON, Oct. 27.—A fierce gale over the Eastern Atlantic delayed Ocean liners today and generally disrupted shipping schedules. Throughout the night the storm raised havoc with shipping in the English channel and off the western coast of England. Small craft were forced to put in to shore for shelter. No casualties were reported.

The tumultous seas slowed up the White Star Liner Arabic and Cunarder Lancastria. Both these liners were several hours overdue at Plymouth, England today.

See Big Victory For Republicans In Lawrence Co.

County Committee Has Enthusiastic Session On Friday Afternoon

FORECAST GREAT VOTE FOR HOOVER

Election Of Entire Republican Ticket Is Also Predicted By Speakers

Enthusiasm for the entire Republican ticket, and predictions that Lawrence County would roll up a large majority for it from top to bottom marked the dinner of the Republican County committee which was held Friday at noon in The Castleton and was attended by about 125 men and women, the majority of which are members of the County committee.

The program was a rather lengthy one but the crowd stayed through it, and each speaker drew applause. Apparently the men and women present were imbued with the same enthusiasm as were the speakers and if this be true, the Republican ticket will poll an unprecedentedly heavy vote in this city and county on Tuesday, November 6.

County Chairman in Charge

County Chairman William E. Eakin presided over the dinner and following the service of the meal, called upon Judge James A. Chambers as the first speaker. "It is a ticket we can be proud of" said Judge Chambers. "Not a candidate on it from the top to the bottom but deserves the unqualified support of every Republican and I know that this county will be safely in the Republican column when the votes are counted."

Congressman J. Howard Swick followed Judge Chambers and said that in his observation Pennsylvania would roll up an enormous majority for the Republican party. "This is an unusual campaign" said the congressman. "Both parties have nominated outstanding men, men of personality. The Republicans offer a man of wide achievement, of far seeing vision, of Auto Caravan And Special Train Take Fans To Washington, Pa.

PROBABLY 1,500 IN LOCAL DELEGATIONS

Some fifty or more cars loaded to capacity with football fans left this morning at 10 o'clock with the Castle Pigskin Caravan from Falls street enroute to Washington, Pa., to witness the New Castle-Washington high school football game which is played there this afternoon.

This was a small representation of the cars that actually did journey to Washington. Gaily decorated cars were seen leaving the city before 8 o'clock for Washington. Following the advance of the caravan, there were also scores of cars starting the trip.

It is estimated that nearly 150 cars loaded with fans left for Washington this forenoon. It is thought that approximately 800 persons journeyed via automobile.

All of the cars in the caravan were decorated with red and black ribbons

Special Session Of Congress For Action Favored

If Regular Session Does Not Act, Hoover Would Call Special Session

ISSUES STATEMENT ON HIS POSITION

Says Agriculture Relief Is Most Urgent Economic Problem Of Country

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Herbert Hoover, Republican Presidential candidate, announced today he would, if elected, call a special session of Congress next spring to enact farm legislation if a satisfactory bill fails of passage at the coming short session.

He described the agricultural situation as the most urgent economic problem confronting the public today.

Outlines Position

Hoover's position was outlined in the following statement:

"The question of a special session of Congress after March 4 in the event of return of the Republican party has been under discussion for some time. There are a number of questions, particularly agriculture relief, which urgently required solution and should not be delayed for a whole year. It is our most urgent economic problem.

"I should hope it can be dealt with at the regular session this fall and thus a special session be avoided. If, however, that cannot be accomplished, I would, if elected, not allow the matter to drift and would of necessity call an extra session so as to secure early constructive action."

Eakin Appointed As Chief Clerk To Co. Commissioners

Vacancy Caused By Resignation Of James Lamoree Filled This Morning

County Commissioners this morning appointed former Register and Recorder, W. A. Eakin as chief clerk to take the place of James Lamoree, who presented his resignation this week. Mr. Eakin was chosen from a number of applicants for the position. His tenure of office is for the unexpired term of Mr. Lamoree, which expires at the end of the term of the present county commissioners. Since leaving the register and record's office Mr. Eakin has been connected with the trust, real estate and insurance department of the Peoples Savings and Trust company. He will assume the duties of his new office on next Monday.

So get ready my friend for the score at The News, for we'll give you results of the play, and remember to pull for the lads while they're gone, its cool, fifty-one today.

Auto Accidents Are Numerous

Four Persons Are Hurt In Various Accidents Reported Here

ACCIDENT NEAR HIGHLAND CHURCH

At least four persons were struck or injured in the numerous automobile accidents reported to the police in the last fifteen hours. Fortunately none of the persons are believed to have been seriously injured.

C. L. McMillen of R. D. No. 4 reported that he was driving west on Croton avenue, near Vine street, when a little girl ran out into the street in front of his machine and was knocked to the ground. He took her to her home, 1109 Beatty street, where it was found that she had not been seriously hurt. Her name was Helen Micco.

Ray H. Gasney, 426 Galbreath avenue, reported that he was driving east on Home street at South Mill street, when a little girl ran out into the street in front of his machine and was knocked to the pavement. He took her to the New Castle Hospital, where on examination it was found that her injuries were not of a serious nature, she being able to return to her home a short time after being taken to that institution.

Joe Richeck, 1015 Cedar street, reported that he was driving north on Atlantic avenue, when a little boy ran out into the street in front of his car and was knocked to the pavement. Mr. Richeck took the boy to his home, where a physician was called and found that the injuries of the child were not serious.

W. W. Campbell of New Wilmington, reported to the police last night that he was attending services at the Highland United Presbyterian church, and had his car parked in the driveway. When he got into the machine, he attempted to cross Highland avenue and the car of Walter McCracken enroute south on Highland avenue, ran into his machine, causing considerable damage to both cars. McCracken was injured in the accident.

J. F. McConnell reported that he was driving his machine south into his garage rear 611 East Long avenue, when a car bearing Pennsylvania license 354-112 going west in the alley at that place, hit and damaged his car.

Mike Obert, 511 Waldo street, reported that he was going north on Mill street in front of the Lawrence Laundry, when street car No. 361, which was following his machine, hit and damaged his car.

GUARDIAN APPOINTED FOR JUDSON RUTTER

Hearing was held before Judge James A. Chambers in court this forenoon in the case of Judson W. Rutter of Perry township, whom it was alleged was suffering from mental trouble that made it impossible for him to look after his estate. An Ellwood City bank was appointed guardian.

announced that not one of the passengers riding in all-steel pullman cars, was injured. The train crews of both trains also escaped without injury.

Traffic was tied up for three hours, but the damage was repaired in time, officials reported, to enable the train to proceed in time for the Wisconsin rooters to reach Ann Arbor for the Wisconsin-Michigan football game.

The students were riding on a special train, running as the second section of the Wabash railroad's regular No. 12 passenger train. The special left Chicago at 1 a. m.

Hit Freight

Just out of Helmer, Ind., train No. 96, a fast freight, was ordered to take siding for the passenger to pass. Brakeman of the freight, according to officials, flagged down the passenger train as the freight was pulling in on the side track.

The passenger, however, did not come to a full stop, and crashed into the feight before it had cleared the main track. The caboose of the freight train and several cars were thrown from the rails, and the engine of the passenger train also left the tracks.

None of the eight pullman cars of the passenger train, however, left the tracks, according to officials.

The nominee meanwhile had no comment to make on the proposal of Senator Borah that congress be called into special session after March 4 to enact special farm relief legislation. Borah however conferred with Hoover before issuing his statement and it was learned that Hoover approved it. It was said that if he is elected Hoover will favor a special session not only to enact farm relief but also to correct inequalities in and to strengthen the tariff law.

Borah proposed a special session "first, to pass a tariff bill with a special view of increasing duties on farm products; second, to pass a marketing bill establishing a more satisfactory marketing system so as to enable farmers to market their products without being put to the enormous expense which is now necessarily incurred, and third, to create a farm board with ample authority and with an ample revolving fund to assist the farmer in marketing his surplus in accordance with sound business principles." Hoover was said to concur in all these proposals having endorsed them in his various speeches.

Members of the high school band, to the number of 55, occupied the rear coach of the football special as it rolled out of the station while students and members of the faculty of the Senior high were located in the two coaches ahead of the band car. New Castle citizens occupied the four remaining cars.

The special was scheduled to reach its destination at 12:40 o'clock this afternoon.

Placing an X on the ballot was the old time symbol of hearty approval of a candidate and his party. Fifty-eight millions of men and women will be eligible to vote this year for the various candidates in the field. There will be many local problems to be fought out but above them all stands the one issue—Herbert Hoover. The voter who keeps his eye on this great outstanding figure and preserves Hoover ideals in selecting all other candidates on the ballot, will have done a worthy service to the nation. Never has there been such an opportunity for the voter to pick a worthy public servant. Never was there a time when the country could look forward with such assurance of an able administration. There is no question about Hoover.

Health Department Hallowe'en Party Proves Success

Seventy-Five Persons Attend Party Friday Evening In Y. W.

The health department of the Y. W. C. A. had a masquerade Hallowe'en party Friday evening in the Y. W. Seventy-five persons were present.

Persons attending gathered in the Y. W. social room. At 8:30 the group was led in a ghost walk down thru the cellars of the Y. W., through the kitchen out the rear door, then a snake dance to the Y. M. gymnasium, back through the park and into the Y. W. gymnasium. A grand march followed and prizes were awarded Miss Ruth Johnson, having the most original costume, and Miss Leola Johnson having the prettiest costume. Judges were Miss Cassandra Aiken, Mrs. Dyson and Miss Belle Offutt.

Hallowe'en games and music were the pastimes of the evening. A fortune telling booth proved of interest, being in a tent of corn stocks in a corner of the room. Miss Mary Perdue was fortune teller. A broom dance with Miss Rose Weber at the piano was another feature of the program.

Later refreshments were served in the third floor dining room. Partners were chosen, animal cut-outs were given out, two of each; persons were paired off by making the noise of the animal they had received.

The success of the party is due to the work of the chairman of the social committee, Miss Betty Noss, and her sub-chairmen and committees. Mrs. Eileen Stone was in charge of the recreation and entertainment; Miss Floy Owens, in charge of decorating the gymnasium in Hallowe'en colors and suggestions and dining room. Miss Kathryn Newbury, in charge of the refreshments. A most enjoyable evening was had by all attending and the party was the most successful ever conducted by this department.

was to stand trial for the slaying of Patrolman Lory Price, murdered by the Birger gang. Wooten also has been implicated in a $75,000 bank robbery and is under sentence for having a stolen car in his possession.

It is believed the men obtained the saw from Wooten's wife who visited him Tuesday.

No trace of the men has been found. Sheriff Herman said both men were two of the worst criminals ever arrested and described them as desperate. A description of the pair was broadcast to police of all middle-western cities.

THREE HUNDRED WORKERS READY FOR CAMPAIGN

when the general campaign closes Wednesday evening, October 31, with a victory dinner at The Cathedral.

Peairs in Charge.

In the absence of Robert C. Love, general chairman of the campaign, Herbert Peairs, director of the campaign, took charge of the meeting, and explained the contents of the working kits which each member of each team received.

"One of the things I wash to stress most," stated Mr. Peairs, "is that the credit system will again be in force this year. Each team will be credited with the number of members it has at the report meetings, and, in turn, each team will be debited when a team member is absent.

Two Day Campaign.

"This year it is an innovation to put over the campaign in two days," continued Mr. Peairs, "but it is a good innovation. It will be a saving of the time of the subscriber and the time of the team worker. You can put it over. The two day campaign is no novelty. It has been done in other cities, and I can see no reason why it cannot be done in New Castle. If everyone here will put in six or seven hours of solid work each day, the thing can be cleaned up in two days, whereas last year, it took eight days to get the same amount of money that we are now asking for."

Mr. Peairs then explained the new card system, which will make it much easier for the team workers. The cards bearing the names of the prospects this year were taken from the electric meter listings of the Pennsylvania-Ohio company, and therefore, cover every house in the city which has in it electric lights.

Do Not Mix Cards.

"By no means should the team worker mix these cards up," Mr. Peairs stated. "At the present time they are in an exact order. The worker can start with the first card in his packet, and go right down the street, there being a card for each house. And, the worker does not have to cross the street, for each side of the street is taken separately. I am sure that this is the best prospect list that we have ever had, and it is all due to the kindness of Louis B. Round and the company he represents.

"Then, I am sure that each worker will find the prospect list a good one, for every home which has an electric light meter should be able to contribute at least one dollar to the Community Chest. You can do it. Let no one talk you out of it. And because of this arrangement, you will have ample time to cover your territory.

Community Business.

"This is community business. We must take care of our charities. Every citizens should pay rental space to live in New Castle, and by contribution to the Community Chest is the best way to do it."

After the talk by Mr. Peairs, representatives of the various agencies represented in the Chest gave brief descriptions of the work which their organizations are doing. Mrs. J. L. Stratton spoke for the Almira Home; F. A. Hover for the Associated Charities; W. Walter Braham for the American Red Cross; Robert Wallace for the Boy Scouts; C. L. McMillen for the Margaret Henry Home; H. A. Wilkison for the Y. M. C. A.; Cora Richie for the Y. W. C. A.; and Julius Blaha for the Salvation Army.

Mrs. Johnson Speaks.

Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson, general chairman of the 1927 drive, also said a few words in behalf of the Chest at this time.

"I am happy to be here tonight," declared Mrs. Johnson, "and I am happy to see so many faces, the same ones that worked with me a year ago. Then, I am glad to see new ones. And I feel sure that Wednesday evening, when we have our victory dinner here at The Cathedral, Mr. Peairs can write $80,000 as the amount subscribed. I am sure that the Chest will go over the top."

"Tip-Off" Breakfast.

The workers and captains are asked not to forget the "tip off" breakfast, which will take place at 7:55 Tuesday morning, October 30, which is the beginning of the general subscriptions. A report meeting will take place at 12:15 of the same day, and Tuesday evening at 6:30, the report dinner will take place.

REPLY FROM POTTERS.

Editor News:—

In the issue of October 26, The New Castle News published an article referring to a letter received from Mr. James M. Smith, president of the Shenango Pottery Co. Mr. Smith complains that this letter was not read as requested which I wish to deny. The letter was read and acted upon at the last official meeting of Local Union No. 54 National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, the members of No. 54 rejected Mr. Smith's proposition in its entirety, and the letter was ordered filed.

Judge Hildebrand On Allegheny Bench

Judge R. L. Hildebrand has returned from Pittsburgh, where he has held criminal court during the past week. Owing to the congested condition of the Allegheny county docket, several judges from surrounding counties were called in, with the result that there were seven judges holding court this week. Judge Hildebrand tried a number of cases during the week.

ATTRACTIVE DINNER AT FIRST BAPTIST

Autumn shades and colors and Hallowe'en novelties made an attractive decoration for the 1 o'clock luncheon given Friday by the Harvey E. Martin Bible class of the First Baptist Sunday school.

The luncheon was served in the church dining room with covers arranged for 40. A number of special guests were present.

Following the luncheon Mr. Martin introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Attorney C. R. Davis of this city. Mr. Davis gave a most inspiring address along the lines of temperance. He pointed out that the Puritans had stood for the best principles in religion and politics and that the people of this government had not deteriorated from those principles since the early civilization. The speaker also spoke of the continued prosperity in the United States since the passing of the 18th amendment and contrasted the conditions existing before the abolishment of the saloon and present conditions.

G. A. R. Ladies.

George W. McCracken Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., entertained their department president, Mrs. Mary Minteer of Altoona, Pa., at their regular meeting Friday afternoon in the Sons of Veterans hall.

Mrs. Sands, Mrs. Hebberly and Mrs. Prichard of Sharon were special guests. After the usual lodge work plans were made for a meeting on Tuesday, November 6. A tureen dinner will be served. After the meeting Mrs. Minteer left for Ellwood City where she was the guest of the Ellwood G. A. R. Ladies Friday evening.

NOTED LECTURER TO SPEAK HERE

Members of the Woman's Club will have their regular meeting in the Highland U. P. church Monday afternoon. Under the direction of the Education department Dr. Thomas Blaisdell will speak on current events.

Following this part of the program there will be an open meeting in the church auditorium, when Mrs. Lucia Ames Mead of Boston nationally known writer and lecturer, will be the speaker.

Mrs. Mead has been a delegate to many European conferences before and since the World War and has had an opportunity to meet international workers in England, France and Germany.

She is the author of "Law of War", "Swords and Ploughshares," "Milton's England" and a number of other well known books.

Reunited Ladies League

Members of the Reunited Ladies League met Thursday evening with Mr. W. L. Davis, North Mill street. Fourteen members were present, and special guests were Mrs. Helen Dunkle, Miss Beulah Melrose, and Miss Gwen Williams.

THE FEDERAL JUDICIARY

The Constitution of the United States makes only slight reference to the structure of the federal courts.

At the head of the system stands the Supreme Court composed of nine judges. A Chief Justice and eight Associate Justices. Six judges must be present at each trial and a majority is necessary for a decision. The salary of the chief Justice is $15,000, and of the Associate Justice $14,500.

All federal judges are nominated by the President and appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Tenure of office is for life, therefore a judge cannot be removed except by impeachment. A judge may resign.

Immediately under the Supreme Court is a Circuit Court of Appeals in each of the nine great circuits into which the United States is divided. The third circuit embraces Deleware, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Fisher Brothers Of General Motors Aid G. O. P. Fund

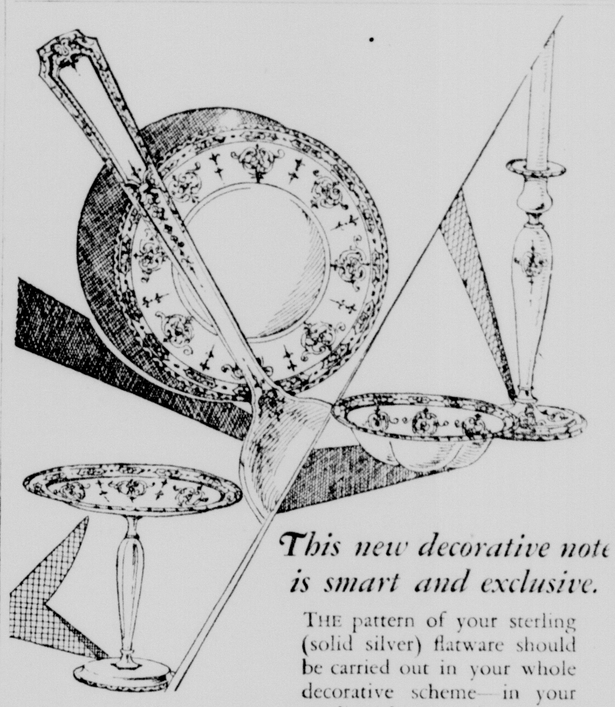

International News Service.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27. — Republican campaign headquarters here today received checks totalling $100,000 as contributions to the Republican cause from the six Fisher brothers. All are heavy stockholders in the General Motors Corporation.

Checks were mailed to Jeremiah Milbank, eastern campaign treasurer, from Detroit following a letter from Fred J. Fisher in which he and Charles T., William A., Lawrence P., Edward F. and Alfred J. Fisher expressed "very best wishes for the success of your cause."

Ours is a government of checks and balances. There is, for example, a Roosevelt on each side.

PROHIBITION

IF THE election next month could bring a distinct verdict by the people on the prohibition question it would help to allay some of the bitterness that has been engendered, and would point the way to the next step to be taken. But so many questions are involved in the campaign that it will be impossible to obtain a clear verdict on the liquor question November 6.

The clear line of cleavage between the two candidates on this issue seems to be this: Governor Smith declares prohibition to be a failure and a breeder of crime and would amend the eighteenth amendment to substitute state control for federal prohibition. Mr. Hoover asserts that prohibition is an experiment in the right direction; he would remedy the abuses, study the situation with a view to making prohibition effective, and keep the eighteenth amendment intact.

Governor Smith has taken a stronger position against Volsteadism than any other national figure, which may indicate that he is years ahead or years behind the mass of voters. There are millions who believe Mr. Smith is eight years behind the times—that prohibition came to stay in 1920 and that the Democratic nominee does not yet realize the fact.

Governor Smith has said he, if elected, could only suggest to congress a way out of the prohibition tangle. As there is no possibility of the next congress being "wet" his suggestions would have the effect of water poured on a duck's back.

ALL IN HOOVER'S FAVOR

IT IS difficult to understand the persistence, in certain quarters, of the contention that Herbert Hoover is un-American because he has spent so much time outside the borders of his own country. The very fact that once he was engaged in world-wide engineering operations seems to give a queer sort of satisfaction to some of his political opponents.

The sponsors of his supposedly adverse theory, however, overlook some important factors. They do not seem to realize that wide experience abroad should prove a valuable asset for a president.

Again, they appear to ignore the fact that several years have passed since Mr. Hoover has been out of this country. Since 1917, when he became federal food administrator, he has been continuously in the service of the United States government, with only one brief respite.

Mr. Hoover's succession of governmental services has been of such character as to give him a more intimate knowledge of conditions at home and abroad than any other American of today. He has been, in the truest sense, the servant of the whole people.

RECONCILIATION

EVENTS of the day are compelling the conscientious to reconcile many old and new ideas, customs, institutions and philosophies. Especially in the more enlightened countries, such as the United States, is this manifest. Reconciling means seeing both sides of a thing and the average American is struggling for justice and broadmindedness.

Official United States has frequently in the recent past actively opposed revolution and usurpation of authority in bordering or distant countries, and yet without revolution there would be no United States today. Our department of state has reasonable excuses for its attitude, but it is interesting to note the reaction of that attitude upon the people of one of the world's nations of a revolution. The American revolution and declaration of independence were conceived for the protection and emancipation of the American colonists, who were the ancestors of the American citizens being protected today from external governmental turmoil and uprising. The perspective means everything.

The motorist and the pedestrian of our congested thoroughfares must reconcile themselves to the rights and privileges of each other. Nothing toward relief can be accomplished unless each class views the situation both from inside the car and from the sidewalk.

America was once the land of hope and the mecca of the oppressed and impoverished of Europe and Asia. There were no restrictions against immigration. The United States became the land of the free, free to all who were free to come. Today thousands in search of freedom and a decent living are being turned back from Ellis Island, unfit for American citizenship. The people who have come from beyond to settle in the New World must be protected from those who come after them. It is right and proper that our government should grant us this protection from foreign infection, physical and mental, and still many Americans are deeply grieved that the opportunity enjoyed by them must be denied to other human beings.

Legislation is a relative matter and a process of reconciling. Tradition and ideals are as paper against the march of time and legislation.

Hoover and the Serfs.
Campaign Fairy Tales.
Dumping Dollars Abroad.
Bitterness in Mexico.

BY ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1928, by N. Y. American, Inc.)

John Sullivan, president of the New York State Federation of Labor, says Herbert Hoover in Asia didn't give labor the right chance. "He employed coolies in China, serfs in Russia and slaves in Burmah." Mr. Sullivan's authority for the statement is James J. O'Brien a contractor who lives in Flushing, N. Y.

There must be some mistake about Mr. Hoover employing serfs in Russia" because the serfs in Russia were freed in 1861 and Hoover was born in 1874.

The accusation that Hoover "employed coolies in China" is like saying he employed laborers in the United States. All laborers in China are called coolies. You can't hire mandarins to work with pick and shovel.

Gov. Bilbo of Mississippi in a public address, helped circulate a campaign yarn that Mr. Hoover had danced with a colored lady named Mrs. Booze, officially connected with the Republican party in the south.

Mr. Hoover to his regret probably does not dance.

Anyhow the Mississippi yarn need not bother him. When Abraham Lincoln came to New York as candidate for the presidency it was said he had married a colored woman. He replied that he did not find it necessary to make a black woman his wife or his slave. He was elected.

Call money went to 8 percent Thursday. High finance that worries about brokers' loans, sums that Americans borrow when they purchase stocks on time payments might worry about something more important.

Those same high financiers are promoting European loans, shipping a thousand million dollars of American money to Europe every year and incidentally taking a comfortable "rakeoff" on each of the loans for themselves.

Even the most innocent among them including childish geese that bought Russian bonds must know that millions now sent abroad in exchange for printed pieces of European paper will never come back.

At least when men borrow money in Wall street to buy stocks wisely or unwisely the money and the stocks STAY HERE.

The bitterness of religious quarrels is shown in Associated Press news from Mexico. Carlos Balda pleaded guilty to placing bombs in the Chamber of Deputies to frighten and punish those that had oppressed the Catholic church.

Senorita Manzano confessed that she planned and attempted to kill President Calles by stabbing him at a dance with a poisoned needle.

Balda confessing placing the bombs said they were purposely made weak without doing much damage.

Young Mr. Chung Ji-Miao, Chinese law student, married Wai Jung Sui, daughter of a rich merchant, took her to England and there murdered her.

Mr. Chung made his mistake when he went to England. They will hang him in a few days in spite of his ingenious story about mysterious Oriental assassins committing the crime.

In England when you kill anybody they hang you without loss of time. Excuses are not accepted. It is in this country that murderers in great numbers go free and even those caught and convicted have two or three years to think it over.

In the big war when airplanes raided London and Paris the inhabitants were warned by the noise of the engines. They will not be warned in the next war for a device is sown making an airplane engine absolutely noiseless.

Dr. Carlen's invention costing only $20, creates an "air vacuum" deadening the engine sound completely. Next some one will eliminate noise of the propeller.

In the next war you will know that airplanes are attacking your city only when bombs explode in streets or on roofs and gas begins to do its work.

When that happens our congress will probably appropriate large sums for building airplanes and even decide to have a separate department for the national air force.

England and France are "puzzled by President Coolidge's views on international naval agreements" and ask "What does 'America want?" They feel in a general way that we don't know our own minds and think we should be satisfied to let them, older and more experienced make arrangements for themselves and us.

Why wouldn't it be a good idea for this country to mind its own business and do what it thinks best about armaments and other things in the future as in the past?

Why consult France or England as to what THIS country shall do?

Those countries did not consult us before they started their big war.

Probably the reason a man never can see the necessity for cleaning house is because he never looks back of the pictures.

You may not be interested in this column but we are always glad when it is written so the printers can make it out.

At a meeting of the coal miners union at Minersville, Pa., a resolution was passed advocating that men wear hats instead of going bareheaded as so many are doing now because it keeps union hat makers out of work. However, the miners took no action on short skirts. Short skirts have kept more people out of work than hats ever did and a lot of the people quit working just to look at the skirts.

Another way to keep from growing old is to assume that the approaching car's single light is the left one.

Political speakers have to have new speeches every time they orate now. The newspapers print a great portion of their stuff and they would get in bad soon if they used the same stuff more than once. If you never made a speech just try and see how easy it is.

"Why do you want to divorce this man?" inquired the judge of a tearful wife.

"Well, you see, your honor, he made me wash his back every Saturday night."

"What!" interrupted the judge. "Do you call that grounds for divorce?"

"No, your honor, but last Saturday night, his back was already washed!"

A Pittsburgh lady got twenty thousand dollars for being struck by an Allegheny county truck. It is an asset to be struck by a truck that is owned by responsible persons.

Next Friday the good people of Zelienople, Pa., are going to celebrate the paving of the Perry highway to that place. This leaves the space in the Perry Highway yet to be paved from Zelienople to Mercer. By another year this gap may be paved. There will be a great time in Zelienople and it has a lot of fine people in it and it is a very fine place at that. We are going over and rejoice with them.

The rich are learning that wealth is worthless except as it can be given away to do good.

Diner (to another complaining of soup being spilled over him): "It's all right, sir. I know the soup here; it never stains after 8:15."

The great trouble with former Community Chest drives was that the solicitors did not see the people they were supposed to see and the result was the large givers had to give it about all. Everybody who can afford it should contribute to the Community Chest and the solicitors should see to it that all are seen. It's a responsibility that should be shared by all citizens and none should side-step it.

Dick: "But why are you going to that poky old place for your vacation?"

Jack: "Well, I have only a week and I want it to seem like a month."

The post script "Please send ten" could be just as well included in the body of the letter, if one could only get up nerve enough to write it.

GIVING TO THE CHURCH.

In almost every church there is one man who gives more than any other and accepts as his reward the privilege of bossing the church. His generosity never is an unmixed blessing.

If he is opinionated and overbearing, he keeps the church under his thumb and arouses the resentment of other members.

Where a man's treasure is, there his heart is. His heart follows his pocketbook. Persuade him to give his money to a cause and in time he will give himself to it. The church that is doing the best work is the church in which every member is a giver.

A church dominated by one man's purse is a poor church, however wealthy it may be. Its members aren't interested. Because they do not share the burden, they do not share the reward. They are mere lookers-on. They enjoy a free entertainment, and the church affords them little more.

It is human nature to let the other fellow carry the burden if he will, but that arrangement hurts everybody concerned.

All of which is another way of saying no church member should give too much.

No institution is resting on a solid foundation if a part of its revenue is derived from one who does not share in its activities. It is like a bride and groom who set up housekeeping on a scale beyond their means and accept help from their parents. They enjoy luxuries, but they lose their sense of independence.

Doubtless the fairest arrangement would be for each to give in proportion to his goodness, but that wouldn't work. Maxey Woods and Mary would be stuck a million dollars.

It cost about sixty thousand dollars to build a mile of hard road along about the last war time. Now bids are being received at about thirty-five thousand dollars a mile. Some of the brick streets in New Castle, put down before the war, cost less than fifteen thousand dollars a mile. Roads are worth all they cost.

It's getting so these days that it's a mighty good thing for a girl to have a profession or trade before she gets married.

A telephone ear piece has been invented which allows a busy man to talk while he is working. It seems to us that there are a few things a man cannot do while working and one of them is listening on the telephone.

A lot of people are afraid of some motorcycle riders even when they are not riding their machines.

The stocking factories must be getting an awful jolt of less orders if the bare legs of the ladies on the stage is anything to go by.

If you do not favor any of the other amendments be sure and give the one providing voting machines in this state some thought. It will be the best thing we have ever had. One thing it will do that will please a lot of people and that is it will remove a lot of incompentent members of election boards. Some birds that never work are always found on election boards.

No man is [illegible] fresh shine, and you never saw a suicide whose nails showed recent attention.

We do not deny any person the right to vote as they see fit and by the same token we do not want any interference either.

When a Pittsburgh lawyer was wildly cross examing a lady, he asked her to give a demonstration of how she had pulled the hair of a lady who had her arrested. The witness hopped off the stand and grabbed the lawyer by the thatch and shook him until he yelled for the judge and everybody to take her off. It's a wonder there are not a lot of killings in court rooms during cross examining.

The polls will open on election day at seven o'clock in the morning and close at seven o'clock in the evening. You can vote every hour after seven o'clock in the morning, but you cannot vote one minute after seven o'clock in the evening. This should be plain enough for any one to understand. The thing to do is to go to the polls as early in the morning as possible and stay there until you have voted. The later you go the less chance you have of voting.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

A GOOD COLLECTOR

It is becoming more and more the custom for school and college boys and girls to spend at least part of the summer vacation at the task of seriously earning some money.

A citizen has just learned how it was that his son in his teens developed considerable affluence during the summer. Without taking his family into his confidence he took a job as a bill collector; he was quite successful.

In the case of a conspicuous laggard he would ring the doorbell and being told that the head of the family was not at home would seat himself on the curb, returning to the house periodically to find out if the absentee had returned. Eventually neighbors would telephone the police department that a strange youth was hanging around and ringing doorbells and a motorcycle officer would investigate. Knowing the boy and learning the job he had on hand the officer would depart, leaving the neighbors exceedingly curious about the entire performance.

The general outcome was that the lady of the house would finally in desperation summon the youthful collector in and announce that she would pay the bill out of her personal account.

As the boy explained, the curiosity of the neighbors was the lever which brought results.

Nicaragua's Supervised Voting Will Be Watched With Interest

Little Republic Chooses New National Officials With Marines On Guard Two Days Before American Election

Two days before the presidential election in the United States, the voters of the little republic of Nicaragua will choose new national officials, balloting under supervision of American marines. The experiment is watched with profound interest here by those who approve the American policy in Nicaragua as well as by those who oppose and condemn it.

Among the most severe critics of the Washington policy, the LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL (Ind.), says of the situation: "Instead of being another American election, this is strictly an un-American affair. Two days before the American people go to the polls Nicaraguans will pass through lines of foreign troops and face American officers before they can exercise their right of suffrage in what claims to be, and has a right to be, a sovereign republic."

On the other hand, the ATLANTA JOURNAL (Dem.), declares that "Nicaragua's election is approaching under peaceful auspices, with all signs indicating that folk in that republic will have the chance to decide calmly what manner of government they want hereafter. The American marine forces," The Journal continues, "are vigilant to detect and circumvent intrigue, which is said to be remarkably scattered for a pre-election season. The provisions of the Stimson agreement are being carried out to the letter. * * * The choice for the Nicaraguans is clearly between Conservative and Liberal candidates. They will be honor-bound to enter upon a period of harmony when the issue is settled next month."

It is contended by the MINNEAPOLIS TRIBUNE (Rep.) that "the Coolidge action as regards Nicaragua almost precisely paralleled the Wilson action as regards Haiti. America's Caribbean policy has been continuous, whether a Democratic or a Republican administration is in power," says the Minnesota daily. "Essentially it is not a party matter at all. It never has been in practice. The president, a custodian of the Monroe Doctrine, carries on the presidential tradition. His right to employ the mailed fist, in extreme emergencies on foreign soil, rests not on the constitution but on the Monroe Doctrine tradition. The president naturally is expected to use discretion in exercising that power."

"Nicaraguans of whatever party affiliation," as observed by the SAN ANTONIO EXPRESS (Ind. Dem.), "appear satisfied with the arrangements which Gen. McCoy and his coworkers have perfected to assure a fair election. The United States desires to withdraw its forces from Nicaragua at the earliest practicable moment. The republic's people can help greatly to that end by voting as quietly as they registered, and also by accepting the result in good faith."

Referring to the fact that "the marines who are presiding over the election boards of Nicaraguan precincts have undergone three months' intensive training in the Spanish language, in the laws of Nicaragua, in registration and balloting procedure," the BUFFALO EVENING NEWS (Rep.) makes the suggestion: "If their training has been anything like that given recruits in the marine corps, it has been thorough—thorough enough, perhaps, to warrant use of them when necessary in the United States, say, in a Chicago primary. Why give the benefit of the talents of the corps only to faraway lands?"

"However honestly the elections may be conducted," thinks the ST. JOSEPH NEWS-PRESS (Ind.) "it is possible that the losing side will charge fraud and may even attempt a revolutionary break to prevent the departure of the United States forces whose rule each party prefers to that of its political foes." Of general conditions, The News-Press remarks: "In Central American elections, as a rule, the party in power has had a great advantage through its control of the troops, the police, the local officials and the treasury, as well as through its censorship of the mails and the press, its use of the liquor monopoly for illegal purposes, and through false registrations, dishonest voting and croked methods in counting the ballots. Revolution, therefore, has been the only means of dislodging a party from power."

"A definition of a Conservative in Nicaragua is 'a desire to have an office;' the definition of a Liberal is the same," in the opinion of the CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE (Rep.), and that paper comments on the forthcoming election: "Two days before the American people go to the polls the Nicaraguans will go through a similar process of democratic government and probably with no more disorder than will attend the election in the United States. They have been helped to do this and the strong arm was used where it had to be. Whatever intellectual horror arises at a view of the prospects the event speaks pragmatically for itself. Nicaragua has a chance to make popular government work to the extent that its people have the willingness and the ability and they are assured order and security in the renewal of their experiment."

"Government by the ballot," asserts the FLINT DAILY JOURNAL (Ind.), "is infinitely superior to government by revolution and terrorism. What the United States has done has been to achieve a better condition of human life on the North American continent. Popular government will have a chance in Nicaragua November 4, because the people can go to the polls with the knowledge that they will be able to vote as they please without intimidation and they will know that their votes will be honestly counted."

Taking the matter a a lighter vein, the SAVANNAH MORNING NEWS (Dem.) asks: "Has anybody seriously suggested yet that the United States troops request Nicaragua to send a bunch of her marines over here early in November to supervise our national election?"

The SAGINAW DAILY NEWS (Ind.) finds a similarity to the United States in the fact that predictions are made in advance by both sides, giving each one's certainty as to its standing in the election. "President Diaz asserts his party will surely win by at least 3,000 majority. Gen. Moncado, similarly confident, is not so modest, however, in his claims. He says his party is going to win by a majority of probably 15,000. Almost it could be imagined that National Chairmen Work and Raskob had temporarily moved their headquarters to Nicaragua."

Dr. Crane's Editorial

"IT IS ME"

There has always been a struggle between the customs of the people on the one hand and the grammarians on the other.

Language is fed by springs constantly coming up from the underground.

Correct speakers simply speak in accordance with the best customs. The only way to learn a language properly is to continue to associate with intelligent folk. To say that you talk correctly because you have always heard such and such a locution means that you talk correctly if you have always associated with a better class of people.

A superintendent of schools some time ago stated that it is quite proper to say "It is me" instead of "It is I", and a merry war was waged in the press throughout the country.

One side holds that "It is I" is correct, because it is in accordance with the rules of grammar. The other side contends that this sounds titled, and that "It is me" sounds more pleasing to the ear.

Both are wrong.

They both err, in that they do not perceive what is the thing that makes good speech.

The true norm and criterion of correct diction is custom. That is, the custom of the most intelligent people.

Language, like law, is simply fixed and hardened custom.

It is not grammar that makes a language; it is language that creates grammar.

For instance, when Lowell speaks of "a book that is honestly come by," he uses a perfectly respectable and acceptable phrase, but one which defies grammar. It is correct, not by any rule, but because of common consent and usage.

It offends us to hear the gentleman from Texas inquire: "Mr. Speaker, where are we at?" But it surely is as grammatical to say "at where" as "in here" or "over there." There is just one reason why the locution is wrong; it is not used by the best people.

Good language is the way cultured and educated people talk. If they make mistakes and take liberties with the King's English, so may we.

On the other hand, it is not custom, that is, any sort of custom, that determines what is good speech. We may have been mingling with the wrong set.

We may have been used to hearing folk about us all our life say: "I hain't nuther" and "Air you got any ink in you pen?" But the trouble is that these people were hardly senators, diplomats, college professors and educated folk.

We have to admit that there is a deal of snobbery in deciding what is good English.

Language is a part of life. "Your speech betrayeth you." It is difficult to break yourself of ways of talking you learned when young.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

AUTUMN

There is a sadness in the air,
As if young trees were weeping,
And older trees, with silvered hair,
A fearful watch were keeping;
A few brave birds still twitter low
As if they, too, were crying;
The humblest creatures seem to know
That summer time is dying.

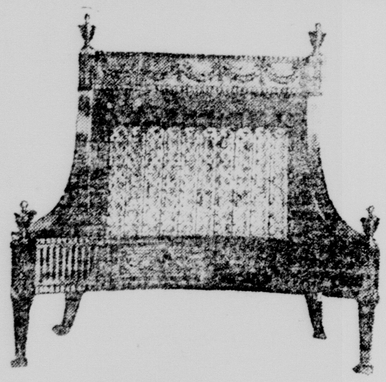

There is a calm upon the land,
That vague and curious stillness
Which men and women understand
Who've watched a fatal illness.
The hills and vales are damp with mist
And cold the winds are blowing.
Too bad that at her loveliest
The summer should be going.

And yet how oft 'tis so with men
Who've struggled for a stipend
And dreamed of ease and splendor when
Their talents should be ripened.
No sooner are the chains of care
From wrists and ankles shaken
And looms a prospect wondrous fair—
Then from the world they're taken.

Walks Into Place; Makes Self At Home

Joe Blair was cold and had no place to hang his hat shortly after midnight Friday and when he noticed some one else go into the William M. White apartment building, corner North and Cochran Way, he walked in also when he found the door unlocked.

He not only did that but went on to the third floor and was preparing to spend a comfortable night on the floor of the place, when Officers Letera and Thompson arrived there on a call of the people of the building, arrested him and took him to the city jail.

This morning, Mayor William H. Gillespie assessed him a fine of $10 with the alternative of ten days in jail, then suspended sentence, with a warning as to what he might expect, if he did the same thing again.

Governor Fisher Predicts Victory

Pennsylvania Governor Speaks In Hoover's Behalf In Massachusetts

TARIFF IS VITAL TO INDUSTRIAL STATES

(Special To The News)

HOLYOKE, Mass., Oct. 27.—Pennsylvania sends you the message straight down the line, she will elect the entire Republican ticket in that state by sweeping majorities, and we are confident that Massachusetts will do likewise, Governor John S. Fisher declared here last evening in a speech urging the Bay state to support not only the Hoover-Curtis ticket but the Republican congressional and senatorial tickets as well.

"Massachusetts and Pennsylvania," said the governor, "alike are predominantly industrial states. In each, industrial wages constitute the basis of purchasing powers. Not only are both located along the seaboard, where they bear the full brunt of destructive foreign competition, but each so developed its industrial productive capacity during the war, to meet the needs of the government, that protection is needed more now than ever before if full-time employment is to be given for that productive capacity."

Tariff revision is the outstanding and all important issue of the present campaign which overshadows all else, the Pennsylvania governor declared.

Governor Fisher asked for the defeat of Senator David I. Walsh, Democrat, running for re-election, asserting that Massachusetts, like his own state of Pennsylvania, could only prosper under a regime of protection. Even under the Fordney-McCumber tariff schedules enacted by the Republican party, industry in Pennsylvania and Massachusetts is not sufficiently protected, the governor declared.

"Can you permit any emotion, any prejudice, any feeling of any sort to outweigh that most fundamental of all impulses—self-preservation?" the governor asked in conclusion. "For herself, Pennsylvania's decision has been made. Asking for and expecting your cooperation, and knowing how much your cooperation means, Pennsylvania sends you this message straight down the line—she will elect the entire Republican ticket in that state by sweeping majorities. We are confident that Massachusetts will do likewise."

unlimited capacities and it is my belief that Herbert Hoover will easily win this election. He is the logical man for the job."

Assemblyman Bart Richards of New Castle and Milton A. Bickett of Ellwood City followed. Both are candidates for re-election on the Republican ticket, Richards in the first district comprising New Castle and Bickett in the second district, comprising the county outside of the city. Each of them spoke briefly.

"Get Out the Vote"

Attorney R. L. Wallace said that while he was convinced of the success of the entire Republican ticket, the thing to do was to get out the vote and thus insure Lawrence County's turning in an overwhelming majority. "We can be proud of every candidate on the ticket" said Mr. Wallace, "but let's not lay down on getting out the vote".

District Attorney J. Elder Bryan congratulated the county committee upon it splendid turnout and predicted victory for the ticket.

Burton J. Bell, president of the Young Men's Republican club of Ellwood City urged a big vote and asked for support of the road bond issue.

Public Service Commissioner Charles H. Young followed Mr. Bell and predicted a three to one majority for the Republican ticket in this county. He also urged that the vote be gotten out. He urged the defeat of all the bond issues except the road bond issue saying that the state did not need to borrow money when it had a surplus of between twenty-five and thirty millions of dollars in the state treasury.

Beaver County Guest

Judge J. Sharp Wilson of Beaver county who is the president of the Crescent Portland Cement company prophesied victory and asked that the road bond issue be supported. He was followed by Attorney James W. Rhodes who said that it was vital to the prosperity of this nation that the Republican party be returned victor in this conflict, for in his estimation, the country is on the verge of one of the greatest tidal waves of prosperity in its history.

Carl Anderson of Butler extended the greetings of the Butler county organization and said that his county would roll up an old fashioned majority for the ticket.

State Senator George T. Weingartner opened by saying that he did not think Governor Smith was of presidential timber and urged that Lawrence county roll up an even larger percentage for Hoover than the straw poll now being taken indicates.

"To support a Republican president we must elect a Republican congress and I have no doubt that this district will return the man who has served so efficiently for the past two years, Dr. J. Howard Swick. As to the state ticket, remember this, that this state will be under the guidance of a Republican administration for two more years regardless of the national outcome. I have served in six regular sessions of the Pennsylvania general assembly and expect to serve two more if I am re-elected. From my own experience I know that a Republican governor must have a Republican general assembly if he is to accomplish anything."

"We can't expect to get anything by sending Democrats to the general assembly," said Senator Weingartner. "If this district and this county expects to get its share of roads, its share of recognition and its rightful place in the general assembly then we must send Republicans down there, for we can't get anywhere with Democrats there."

Minister Speaks

One of the outstanding addresses of the day was that of Rev. William Hodge, pastor of the A. M. E. Zion church. "Do not believe that the negro will vote for Al Smith" said Rev. Hodge. "He is fundamentally Republican, for he remembers the party that made it possible for him to become enfranchised. A lot of people are going to be fooled when they think that Smith will get the most of the negro vote."

Attorney Clyde Gibson was next on the program. "The Hoover speech in New York was the one thing that convinced me of the man's fitness for the office" said Attorney Gibson. "From that speech one can easily conclude that a new leader is entering the stage. Here is a man who will not only be the president of his country, but the leader of his party, a statesman in every respect of the word."

"The national situation will take care of itself" said Mr. Gibson "and we must not forget that there is a local ticket to elect. State and local offices touch us more immediately than the national offices and we can therefore see and feel them more easily."

"This district cannot afford to send Democrats to Harrisburg.

"A Democrat in Harrisburg is like a lost soul. About all he can do is to get inside the door. Huddled back in a corner with what few Democrats there are, given unimportant committee assignments he cannot hope to accomplish anything for his district. How could he fit in?"

Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson, chairman of the Hoover-Curtis Legion paid a high tribute to the work of Herbert Hoover during the World war and said that she considered it a privilege to be asked to head the local committee in charge of small contributions to the Republican Campaign fund. Many of those present signed the subscription list, and this money will be sent in to the Republican National headquarters.

Other Guests

Because of the pressure of time Chairman Eakin could not call upon more speakers but introduced the following prominent Republicans: R. T. Brown, Ellwood City; W. E. McClung, Butler; Carl Davidson, Ellwood City; M. A. Riley, Ellwood City; H. C. Hunter, secretary to Congressman Swick; Dr. R. B. Greer of Butler; C. W. Wardman, Ellwood City; Mrs. F. S. Brenneman, vice chairman of the Lawrence county committee, Mrs. W. A. Taylor, Mrs. John S. Crowl, Register and Recorder Jeanette Hutton, County Treasurer Ada C. Smiley, and Miss Martha K. Bigley.

It was a splendid meeting, one that will undoubtedly result in the turning out of a heavy vote. At the conclusion of it, poll books were distributed to various committee men and women.

Three Robberies Reported Here

Electric Motor Equipment Stolen From New Jameson Hospital

TWO STORES ARE ALSO ENTERED

Three robberies were reported to the police today as having occurred over the night.

From the Jameson Memorial Hospital came the report that some unknown person had entered the building and stolen an electric motor and equipment, which were used as a saw machine. Detective John Young and Officer Lynch made an investigation this morning.

It was reported this morning that the store of Albert Turner, 842 East Washington street, had been entered during the night and merchandise, including cigarettes, candy, etc., to the value of $25 taken.

Detective John Young and Officer Thomas Lynch were detailed on the case and found that an effort had been made to jimmy all the windows of the store and finally succeeded in forcing open one at the rear. They left behind two pairs of boys' gloves and the iron nail puller with which they forced their entrance.

About noon, the officers had ferreted out the boys responsible and had recovered most of the goods. After getting the stuff, the boys had climbed clear to the roof of the three story brick buildings, which are occupied by an A. & P. store and the Farmers Supply Company on East Washington street and hidden their stolen goods there. The boys are fourteen and fifteen years of age and no disposition of their case has yet been made.

Store of Philip Wagner & Son, 19 North Mercer street, was entered last night some time, according to the report made to the police this morning and Detective John Young and Officer Thomas Lynch were detailed to investigate.

They found that entrance had been gained by a side door, a key having been used and some bank books and Christmas savings books on different banks taken.

Police Officers Make Arrests In Triangle Case

Two Women In Quarrel Over Man According To Officer's Report

Officer Charles Longstreth answered the call to the Huddle barber shop, corner of Market way and South Jefferson street, this morning to find that one colored man, who had evidently been playing with the affections of two ladies of color, was finding it necessary to keep one of his lady friends from injuring the other with a large and wicked looking penknife.

When the group, Junitta McNabb, Anna Jackson and Elmer Ransom, all colored and all from Wampum, appeared before his honor, each was allowed to tell their story.

Miss Anna Jackson stated that she had just met Ransom and he had brought her to the city to do some shopping, after she had inquired and found that he had ceased to love Junitta McNabb and was free to give his affections where he desired.

They had arrived here and had gone to the Huddle barber shop to get her hair cut. They had hardly gotten in there until Junitta arrived and called Ransom out. Miss Jackson called to Ransom to leave her and then Junitta began to call her names and drew the knife on her and only the efforts of Ransom and others prevented her being cut. She had called the police.

Junitta McNabb stated that Ransom owed her two weeks' board bill and she had followed him to get it, not the new lady friends of her friend of six years. She said that he had paid her when she called him outside the barber shop. She denied trying to knife the other lady of color but did admit the ownership of the knife.

Ransom hadn't much to say but to admit that he had been friends with Junitta for six years and had owed her board money, which he paid when she called him from the barber shop.

Officer Longstreth testified to getting the knife and to there having been trouble.

Mayor Gillespie fined Junitta $10 and discharged Miss Jackson and Ransom. Ransom paid the fine of Junitta and they evidently returned to Wampum together, because Miss Jackson secured a taxicab of her own and returned by herself.

Local People At Hoover Meeting In Grove City

Mrs. E. F. G. Harper Speaker At Political Meeting In Penn Grove Hotel

Mrs. E. F. G. Harper and Mrs. Alvah Shumaker of this city were in Grove City Friday where they were guests of the Hoover club of Mercer county at a political gathering.

The meeting was conducted in the Penn Grove hotel and was attended by about four hundred women.

Addresses by prominent state and county campaign workers were outstanding features of the afternoon. Congressman Foss of Chicago made the principal address of the occasion. Mr. Foss spoke on "Hoover and Republicanism." Mrs. Gertrude Whetvel, state organizer of the League of Woman Voters discussed "How to Use the Ballot." Mrs. Haprer of this city gave a talk on "The First Seven Proposed Amendments to the Constitution" and Mrs. Lenora Calderwood, wife of the dean of Grove City college spoke on the last Seven Amendments.

Mrs. McCauley in charge of the department of Public Welfare of Pennsylvania, a member of Governor Fisher's cabinet gave a masterly address on "Women in Politics."

At the conclusion of the program a tea was enjoyed. Mrs. S. C. Emery of Grove City and Mrs. Harper of New Castle poured. A reception was held in the evening in honor of Mrs. McCauley.

Gifford Pinchot Speaks Here Monday

Will Make Short Address In City Council Chamber Late Monday Afternoon

Gifford Pinchot, former governor of Pennsylvania, will be in the city Monday afternoon and is scheduled to make an address in the interest of the $25,000,000 bond issue to be voted on at the general election, and the proceeds of which are for the purpose of purchasing forest lands for the conservation of the water supply of the streams of this state.

He will make his address in the city council chamber at 4:30 o'clock Monday afternoon and those interested in the problem of preserving the water and forest resources of the commonwealth will find his address of interest.

When it was learned by local sportsmen and others interested in the matter, that the former governor would be in the city Monday, he was prevailed upon to make this address in the interests of the bond issue.

PETER'S ADVENTURES in ANIMAL LAND
BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

THE QUARREL AT THE CROSS ROADS

"'I'm going to cast in my lot with White-Coat,' replied Red-Feathers. 'He is the largest and I am the smallest of us four and, besides, red and white go well together and neither takes away from the beauty of the other. People might not notice me at all if they saw Golden-Collar's straws, and as for you, Purple-and-Green, you would be angry every time we met folks because it would be me at whom they would look. My coat is so much lovelier than yours.'

"'The very idea! You conceited bird, how dare you say such a thing!' screamed Purple-and-Green, angrily, flapping his wings and trying to peck his saucy brother with his sharp beak.

"White-Coat took Red-Feather's part and Golden-Collar went to the aid of Purple-and-Green and soon the four brothers were at it again, fighting just as hard as they had done at home.

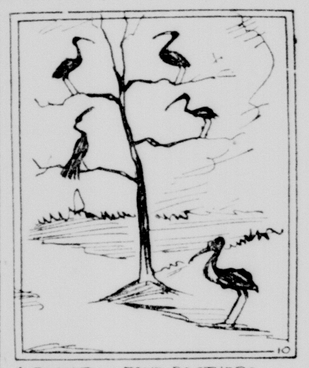

"'I am the oldest brother,' screamed White-Coat. 'If Red-Feathers wishes to come with me he can, and he is the only one of you three who is showing any sense. I know what I am about and he realizes how wise I am. Go your own ways and see how you come out. As for me, I am glad neither of you are flying in our direction.'

"'Mind your own business, you hateful fellow,' screeched Purple-and-Green. 'If Red-Feathers had spoken to you like he did to me you would have plucked out his feathers, and now you will not let me get a peck at him.

"'I am tired of quarrelling, anyhow. What is the use of wasting my wind on fighting when I might be flying and seeing the sights. If we never meet again, remember that Purple-and Green is able to take care of himself and that he will do nothing of which his family need be ashamed. Farewell, brothers.' Waving his wing, Purple-and-Green flew off over the path to the right.

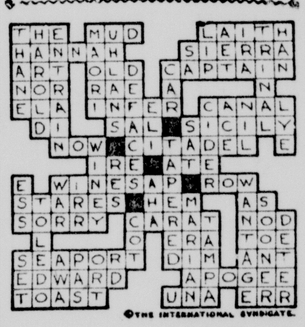

"'You will be proud of me, too,' cried Golden-Collar. 'I intend to make a name for myself in this world. There is no time like the present to find out what awaits me in the lands that the left path shall lead me to.' Away Golden-Collar went in the opposite direction."

Next—"Hail, Spirit of the River."

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The ladies of the Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Nathan McClung on Thursday. This was an all-day meeting. The ladies met to quilt a quilt for the missions. A tureen dinner was enjoyed by all, Rev. McClung being the special guest of the day and also the walking boss. The hours were passed very quickly with social chat while the fingers flew swiftly over the quilt.

Those present were: Mrs. Anna McNulty, Mrs. Ethel Pollock, Mrs. Alice Palmer, Mrs. Mable Hogue, Mrs. Jennie Minnich, Mrs. Jennie Blevins, Mrs. Alice McKissick, Mrs. Lucy Wallace, Mrs. Margie Pollock, Mrs. Rrusilla Adams, Mrs. Anna McClung and Miss Ethel Flack.

RETURN FROM TRIP

Clarence Stevenson, John Eppinger, John Sankey Jr. have returned from a trip to Buffalo to visit the Perina feed mills there. There were about 200 in all that left Harrisville by bus. While in Buffalo they were entertained at the hotel and then taken to view Niagara Falls and also went to Canada. On Thursday evening they attended a banquet at the hotel. They all report a fine trip and royal entertainment while there.

CHURCH SERVICES

There will be church services at the U. P. church Sabbath at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Nathan McClung pastor. Sabbath school at 11:30 a. m. Superintendent, Gil McKissick.

Church services at the Presbyterian church Sunday at 10:30 a. m. Rev. A. I. Dickenson pastor. Sunday school at 11:30 a. m. Homer Glenn superintendent.

Sunday school at Mount Pleasant M. E. church at 10 a. m. Church services at 7:30 p. m. Rev. McCaskey pastor.

GRANGE MEETS

The Plaingrove Grange met at the I. O. O. F. hall on Tuesday evening. The guests of the evening were the Boy Scouts and their master. A short business session, after which the literary hour was turned over to the Boy Scouts.

Mr. Ropp gave an interesting talk on the activities of the Boy Scouts. Some of the boys performed magic tricks and different other stunts. There were about 18 guests and about 50 present in all.

The social committee served cookies and coffee during the social hour.

SPEAKS ON HOOVER

Rev. McDonald of Youngstown will address the audience at the Mount Pleasant M. E. church Monday evening. His subject is entitled "Dry Cleaning Smith with a Hoover". Rev. McClung also will speak.

SOCIETY TO MEET

The Missionary Society of the U. P. church will meet Thursday with Mrs. Bertha Shoaff.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Mrs. Ethel Pollock entertained members of her Sunday school class with a masquerade party on Thursday evening from seven to nine o'clock. Games were indulged in. Lunch was served by the hostess. Tomatoes were served, cut like pumpkins. The hours passed too quickly for the little guests.

Those present were: Mary Shoaff, Irene Wallace, Agnes Otremba, Agnes Peebles, Ida Peebles, Laura Brown, Luella Polloch, Margaret Offut, Elda Mae Seth, Mrs. Adda Offut and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pollock.

Evangelist Erickson Speaks On Day Of Miracles At Tabernacle

GREAT SERVICES ARE PLANNED FOR SUNDAY

In one of his most effective sermons since coming to the city, Evangelist C. H. Erickson, on Friday night dwelt upon the fact that miracles are not a thing of the past. Some 1,500 worshippers were present and the results of the early meetings was plainly evident in the increased interest in the sermon and the number of converts who sought Christ at the altar.

"The days of miracles are not past" said Mr. Erickson. "Christ did not perform miracles just to demonstrate his power. Had that been the cause, one miracle would have been enough. One healing at the touch of His hand would have been sufficient to show the people his power. He did it because of His love for mankind."

Unbelief In The World

"Had he done it because there was so much unbelief in the world, wouldn't it be sensible to suppose that he would perform the same miracles of healing today when the world is so full of unbelief?"

"The churches today are filled with Modernism and Skepticism. We must get back to the fundamental truths of the Bible, and get the churches in such shape that they will not hold only the form of religion."

"Salvation is the greatest miracle in the world. Read Hebrews 13-8, Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today and forever. That means forever and he is just as ready and willing to heal by His Divine Power today as He ever was."

"Christ is not the same as some of our modern politicians who promise things before they are elected and then forget all about them. The fact that He has been raised to our High Priest has not made any change in His love for us. When He was here He gave the power to His Apostles. Then He sent out seventy men two by two, all of them endowed with the same Divine power."

"There has never been a day when miracles have not been performed. Read Wesley or Calvin and you will find that He performed them in those days and he still does it. Divine Healing is not in the stage of trial Eminent doctors, among them Dr. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., have agreed to this, and Divine Healing is going on all the time."

Here the evangelist asked how many had been healed by Divine power, before the present tabernacle was erected. Many raised their hands.

Evangelist Erickson's sermon on Friday night was one that left its impress upon the minds and hearts of those present. It was a powerful sermon, and at the close of it many sought the altar.

Sunday afternoon he promises a feast of good things for those who attend. The subject for Sunday evening was nat announced but he promised the service would be well worth attending.

President Of Lutheran Synod At St. John's Church

Rev. Ellis B. Burgess, D. D., president of the Pittsburgh Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church will preach Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in St. John's Lutheran church, Neshannock avenue and North street.

Dr. Burgess will speak on "A Church Door in Wittenberg." In the evening the young people of the church will be in charge of the service. The subject for discussion will be "The Reformation of the Sixteenth Century."

Both services promise to be the most interesting. Dr. Burgess is one of the ablest divines in Western Pennsylvania. It is expected that a large congregation will greet him on Sunday morning.

Picking Presidents

1908: Taft Wins Handily Over Bryan

By CHARLES L. MULLIGAN
Written for Central Press and New Castle News

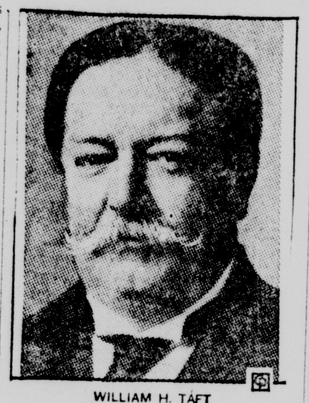

True, for the time being, to his promise not to seek another term, President Roosevelt followed the Jefferson-Jackson precedent by picking his successor. The man he had groomed for the job was William Howard Taft, now chief justice of the United States, who had been governor general of the Philippines and secretary of war in the Roosevelt cabinet.

Taft was nominated on the first ballot at Chicago. The president threw himself energetically into the campaign to elect him, secure in the belief that it would mean a continuation of "my policies."

For the third time the Democrats turned to William J. Bryan. The loser in 1896 and 1900, he had seen his party go down to an even worse defeat in 1904 without him.

Bryan had made a tour of Europe, where he had been warmly received, and on his return to New York in 1906 he had been accorded an astonishing ovation. He was nominated on the first ballot at Denver, with John W. Kern, of Indiana, as running mate. It is a notable fact that the Democrats never teamed Bryan with a vice presidential candidate of assured vote-getting power.

Bryan again campaigned vigorously assailing the Republicans on the trust issue and lampooning the Roosevelt administration. "Shall the people rule?" was his slogan. Taft was attacked for his attitude as a federal judge in labor disputes, and he hit back spiritedly. He had the weight, influence, popularity and prestige of the administration behind him; he made a splendid personal campaign, and he won with ease. Bryan bettered the Parker showing of 1900 by 22 electoral votes. The electoral vote:

William H. Taft, Ohio, and James S. Sherman, New York, Republicans, 321 votes; William J. Bryan, Nebraska, and John W. Kern, Indiana, Democrats, 162.

The popular vote: Taft, 7,679,006; Bryan, 6,409,106; Chafin (Prohibition), 252,683; Debs (Socialist), 420,820.

BOY SCOUT Activities

NEW WILMINGTON.

The New Wilmington Scout Troop No. 1 held their regular weekly meeting in the city hall on Tuesday evening October 23.

The troop was called to order by the Senior Patrol leader and then by the bugler.

The assistant scoutmaster then took charge of the meeting. An announcement was made by the assistant scoutmaster that all scouts who are going to usher at the football game on Saturday October 27 are asked to meet at the football field at 12:45 and are to be in full uniform.

All Star, Life and Eagle Scouts were asked to remain after the meeting to be instructed as to how they are to have their certificates signed.

The next meeting will be held at the regular time next Tuesday evening. All scouts are requested to be present and appear in their scout uniform.

ELKS TROOP NO. 5.

A very interesting meeting of the Elks Boy Scout Troop was held Thursday October 25 in the basement of the Elks Home. The meeting was in charge of Scoutmaster Davis and assited by Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Hartman.

A very large number of boys were present at the meeting.

Many tests were passed in second and first class ranks. The boys passing tests were Kimmel Barbour, knife and axe; Bernard Lutz, compass, and Wilbur Stevens, significance of the badge.

Two contests were held: Mouth-wide and potato relay. The winners of the mouth-wide were Bob Brown who had the biggest mouth which was two and a half inches, first; Bernard Lutz second, and Kimmel Barbor, third.

The patrols that won the potato relay was won by the White Eagle patrol. Second place was won by the Lions patrol and last place by the Black Bear.

A new patrol was formed at this meeting. The new patrol is called the Black Bear. The patrol now is composed of three boys. The boys are Bob Rodgers, Hugh Irwin and Bernard Lutz.

The troop has planned to have their own Court of Honor this fall. The Court of Honor will be held in the ballroom of the Elks club. The exalted ruler Mr. Thomas will have the pleasure of presenting the badges to the boys.

The following boys are expecting to get badges at the Court of Honor. Harry Brown, second class badge; Bob Brown, second class badge, first class badge, basketry, swimming woodcarving and public health merit badges; Alfred Howard, first class badge, basketry, swimming, fireman, ship, woodcarving, scholarship and electricity merit badges and a Star badge.

Boys wishing to join the troop are requested to be present at the next meeting.

Scribe: Alfred Howard.

REVIEW BOARD MEETING.

The Review Board will meet on Monday October 29 for all scouts who did not attend camp and are eligible for advancement. This does not apply to the Star Life and Eagle scouts. They must appear whether they were at camp or not before this special committee. The Review Board will be under the chairmanship of John E. Dye.

Sixty Four Firms Choose New Castle For Company Name

How many New Castle's in New Castle? According to the lists compiled by the directory, there are exactly 64 business establishments in the city who have as the first part of their trade name the two words New and Castle.

There are factories of almost every nature, lunch counters, junk dealers, meat markets, grocers and a score more different types of establishments that claim New Castle in their names.

Lawrence is not quite as popular however. Some 25 different establishments, orders, organizations and whatnots have Lawrence preceeding their names.

In contrast to this, one can find names of many of the big cities in business houses. New York claims perhaps a half dozen, Manhattan, Erie, Pittsburgh, Boston, Atlantic City, Washington, Cleveland and perhaps a score of other cities are laid claim to by a number of minor establishments.

Greek-Americans Will Meet Sunday

One Hundred Prizes Will Be Given Mummers

Arrange Prizes For Multitude Of Different Stunts And Costumes

WILL COMPLETE PLANS ON MONDAY

One hundred prizes will be given for the best mummers, groups, caricatures and a score of other types and modes of dress at the great Hallowe'en parade which will take place in New Castle the night of October 31 according to the findings at the meeting of the committee which occurred Friday night in the American Legion Home.

Monday night the committee will meet again at the same place and the complete lists of donors and for what the prizes are offered will be announced by the committee Tuesday. At this meeting Monday evening, state the committee, final plans will be made and the announcement will be made Tuesday of the line of march, prizes and all that concerns the mummers parade for New Castle.

The parade will march throughout the down town districts according to the plans in mind at present by the committee and indications are that the entire evening will be one of Hallowe'en festivities throughout the city.

Those entering the mumers parade will form in line east and west of Jefferson street on Falls street. There they will be organized and placed in their proper line of march and from there the procession will begin. The mummers will march down Jefferson street, turn left to Washington and will march up Washington street. The full line of march has not been determined as yet state the committee.

Ivor Davis is chairman of the committee in charge of the Hallowe'en celebration and T. Wilbur McCullough will be grand marshall of the parade.

Full announcement concerning the time and place of the parade start will be made following the meeting Monday night as well as other details of the program for the evening.

Police Officer Is Released On Bail

Captain Of Philadelphia Detectives Is Given Hearing Today

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27.—Charles Beckman, dismissed captain of detectives, was released in bail early today following his arrest on perjury charges growing out of his recent testimony before the police board. He will be given a hearing today before Judge Edwin O. Lewis.

Beckman's dismissal came about after he attempted to resign during his trial before the civil service commission on charges brought by the special grand jury investigating Philadelphia's Racketeer. The jury declared he was "unfit to hold any public office."

The warrant that resulted in Beckman's arrest late last night at the 12th ward Republican club was sworn out by Patrick J. McKewen, chief of county detectives. It alleges Beckman committed perjury regarding his testimony concerning his safe deposit box, his financial affairs, and that he "didn't know Al Hendrie," reputed beer king.

Meanwhile the special jury which has caused the arrest of dozens of policemen on graft charges continues its investigation. The defunct unit number one organized by Former Safety Director General Smedley D. Butler to prosecute liquor law violators is now under fire.

Murder Farm Owner Is Afraid Of Fire

Attorney Upbraids Northcott For "Talking Too Much"

(International News Service)

VANCOUVER, B. C., Canada, Oct. 27—Gordon Stewart Northcott, charged with the murder or four boys on his alleged "murder farm" in southern California, proved himself smokeshy today.

Riding into Vancouver from Okalla prison, he became terror stricken when smoke began to come through the boards of the car. He tried to leap from the machine—but momentarily forgot the handcuffs which bound him to a husky constable.

As a result he bears two bad bruises on his right wrist. Northcott thought that the automobile was afire.

Northcott was upbraided by Attorney Frank Lyons, his consel, for "talking too much". The scene occurred after Lyons heard of Northcott's assertions of yesterday to Investigator James R. Quinn, in which he was said to have agreed to plead guilty to the murder charges "if poor little mother goes free."

Pleads Guilty To Embezzlement Chargs

Muncie School Board Treasurer Admits Embezzling School Funds

(International News Service)

MUNCIE, Ind., Oct. 27.—Acting on the advice of his attorneys, George L. Haymond, 60, resigned treasurer of the Muncie school board and of the Muncie Y. W. C. A. appeared suddenly in the Delaware circuit court here today and entered plea of guilty to a charge of embezzling $53,000 of the city's school funds.

Circuit Judge Clarence W. Dearth sentenced Haymond to serve 2 to 14 years in the State prison at Michigan City, fined him $500 and disfranchised him for two years.

Immediately after the sentence was passed the man who confessed to defalcations of more than $145,000 was taken to Michigan City by Sheriff Harry McAuley.

Two Priests Are Executed In Mexico

Were Captured After Fights With Liberator Rebels In Hills

(International News Service)

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 27.—Two priests who had been captured by Federals in fights with the Liberator Rebels in Jalisco yesterday were executed by firing squads, said a dispatch from Guadalajara today. One execution took place in the village of San Cayelano and the other in the village of San Javier.

Fighting was reported from various parts of western and southern Jalisco. Military headquarters said that battles or skirmishes had been fought at La Ribera, near Yurecaro; Ehostatlan, San Cayetano, Jilotlan De Los Dolores, La Joya, Cuquio, Lagos De Moreno and Oropeza.

No Teacher Yet For Shaw School

School teachers appear to be very scarce in Lawrence county, according to County Superintendent John C. Syling. Last week it was announced that a vacancy has occurred at the Shaw school in Slippery Rock township, owing to the resignation of the teacher. Up until noon today the vacancy had not been filled.

MAYOR GILLESPIE GOES TO WASHINGTON

Mayor William H. Gillespie, one of the most enthusiastic of the followers of the New Castle High school football team left shortly before noon today by automobile for Washington, Pa., where he attended the New Castle High-Washington football game this afternoon. He had been planning to go for some time and for a time this morning looked as if he would not succeed.

SALDO AND MISS VIRGINIA SHOW HERE NEXT WEEK

Local Man's Mystery Act To Be Presented At The Cathedral

Saldo and Miss Virginia, two of the most clever exponents of mystery of which some of their acts rival those of the late Houdini, will feature the evening performance, except Thursday, at the Cathedral next week. The vaudeville act will be staged between motion pictures, and no doubt the fact that both are local people and their mystery act is something out of the ordinary, will appeal to the theatergoing public.

Saldo is none other than Sol Davis, and Miss Virginia is his clever daughter. For years they have practiced, and practically all of the tricks which have kept theater audiences guessing for years have been mastered by the pair. In addition they have succeeded in mastering some mystery acts which are not duplicated by any other theatrical performers.

Handcuffed and Chained

While their act consists of a repertoire of mysteries, a few of the outstanding stunts are to allow city policemen, detectives or even the sheriff and county detective to handcuff Saldo, tie him up with ropes or fasten him in chains, place him in a box nailed tight, and yet he escapes! How? That is something that only Saldo and Miss Virginia know. While Saldo is being manacled Miss Virginia Stands away, thus not being able to slip him keys, thin wires or any other implement that might help him.

Saldo also allows himself to be manacled, "trussed up" and bound in full view of the audience, and in some of his performances has been placed behind a barricade and while the time consumed to bind him generally takes five minutes, he escapes in almost a breath, thus showing that he has mastered the trick to perfection. His daughter, Miss Virginia, also has a number of mystery acts that astonish.

Holds Secret Tight

While Saldo admits that he knows how to escape from straight-jackets and even nailed boxes, "lock and ball" and irons, he has made it a steadfast rule not to permit the knowledge to escape from either he or Miss Virginia. "If half the criminal world knows what I do about handcuffs and other means made to hold them safe, society would not be safe," he said recently.

Saldo and Miss Virginia will be the feature act. They have played many of the theaters outside of the city and their services are in demand, and as they are local residents the management of The Cathedral calendered the two for their appearance in The Cathedral. They will appear at eight p. m. and 10 p. m. each night next week excepting Thursday.

Mt. Jackson Bible Group Boosts Fund

A contribution of $10 to the American Red Cross hurricane fund from the William Miller Bible class of the United Presbyterian church of Mt. Jackson increased the Lawrence county chapter's total amount to $2,159.09, Pat J. Dempsey, secretary of the local organization announced today.

Arrest Driver After Accident

Charles R. Cameron arrested last night by Officers Thompson and Hanna, following an automobile accident in which the car of Cameron struck and damaged the machine of Andrew Shellock, 113 Chartes street, which was parked on Moravia street.

The arresting officers found evidence that Cameron was under the influence of liquor and he was brought to the police station, where a physician on examination verified the suspicions of the officers.

This morning, Cameron was taken before Alderman J. Lee Cooper, where he was charged by Chief of Police C. C. Horner with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor.

Nut Crop Is Scarce In Lawrence County

Chestnut season is here but the Lawrence county crop is missing. Farmers throughout the county report that there are but few trees, and those that remain have suffered from blight. There is also a great scarcity of hickory nuts, walnuts, butternuts, and hazel nuts, which were once so plentiful. The small boy, with hands stained with walnut juice, is seen no more. With him has gone the coal house or back yard shed, on the roof of which the walnuts were scattered out to dry. Alas, for the "good old days".

Attending Funeral Of Judge Henninger

Judges R. L. Hildebrand and James A. Chambers, with a number of local attorneys, went to Butler today to attend the funeral of the late Judge John R. Henninger. Judge Henninger died this week as a result of an affection of the foot from which he has suffered during the past month. He was well known here where he has held court on several occasions.

The reasons commonly given for divorce are but elaborated definitions of the word "satiety".

Strange how easily one can be injured by a man rich enough to invite damage suit.

Man Confesses To Killing Boy

Carl Panzram Is Self-Styled Fiend Killer With Long Record

MIND IS DERANGED, ATTORNEY BELIEVES

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27—Carl Panzram, who confessed in the district jail that he killed 12-year-old Henry McMahon in Salem, Mass., and later refused to stick by his story when confronted by Massachusetts authorities, stands today a self styled fiend killer with a long record.

Police of Philadelphia, and New London, Conn., today are checking up on murder in those cities Panzram confessed last night he committed. He broke a long silence by also reiterating his guilt in the Salem murder.

Gives Details.

Panzram gave the police gruesome details of the killing last August of Alexander Luszock, a Philadelphia newsboy. Acting on a letter they received from Panzram since he has been held at the jail on a housekeeping charge, two Philadelphia detectives came to Washington and questioned the man. They returned home with the intention of seeking a first degree murder indictment.

The New London police are investigating a murder there which Panzram wrote them he had committed. Local police refuse to divulge the name of the alleged victim. Panzram promises further disclosures concerning murder in other places if brought to trial, he says.

Panzram, in the presence of Martin Cugran and Joshua Hepburn, Philadelphia detectives, and Detective Sergeant John Flaherty and Lieut. Edward B. Kelly of the local homicide squad, said he met his Philadelphia victim at the foot of State street, that city, and for the purpose of luring him away hired the lad to carry his baggage.

Lures Victim

Luring him to a lonely spot, "about a quarter of a mile from pier 98," Panzram said he first attacked the boy and then choked him to death. He then disposed of the body, and police, checking up on his story, say it has been verified in most particulars.

M. L. Lane, local attorney retained by Panzram, believes the man's stories are the product of a disordered mind and announced that a defense of insanity will be made. He will fight extradition to any of the cities named in Panzram's confessions, he said.

Peggy Joyce Now Goes In For Career

Will Not Marry Lord Northesk; Prefers Career As Actress

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Peggy Hopkins Joyce is more interested in her career than in acquiring another husband—a titled husband, at that, she disclosed today.

She said she has definitely decided against becoming Lady Northesk, at least for a long, long time. Lord Northesk, who was divorced yesterday by Jessica Brown, formerly of the "follies," lost no time in proposing to Peggy, but the beautiful blonde's reply was not "yes."

"Not just yet," was the essence of Peggy's answer.

The reason, Peggy explained today, is that she is going in for a career.

"I can get a husband any day but I can't get an opportunity any day to star on the stage," she said.

A French farce is being prepared for her by Gilbert Miller, she asserted, adding that her salary probably will be as large as any actress in the country.

"Lord Northesk understands—I told him the opportunity was too good to pass up," she said.

"Does this mean you will marry him some day?" she was asked.

"Maybe I shall and maybe I shaln't. I am very fond of him but we have agreed that we are to be just friends."

Weather Outlook For Week Is Dull

Rains Predicted For Tuesday And Wednesday, Also Week-End

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Weather outlook for the period October 29 to November 3, inclusive:

North and middle Atlantic states: A period of rains about Wednesday and again at the end of the week. Cold the first half of the week, moderating the latter half in the middle Atlantic states.

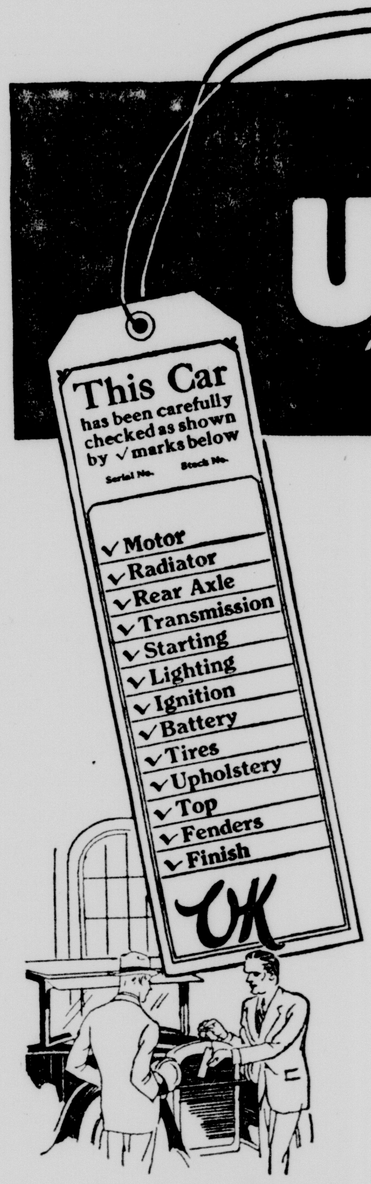

Ohio valley: A period of rains Tuesday or Wednesday and again toward the end of the week. Cool at the beginning of the week, moderating the middle of the week.

Hi-Y Clubs Have Hallowe'en Party

Members of Hi Y clubs of the Senior high school, Ben Franklin and George Washington Junior high and girl friends were entertained by the local Y. M. C. A. Friday evening at a Hallowe'en masquerade ball in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. Some 75 persons were present.

The evening was spent in various stunts, games and an informal time when the masks were removed following the grand march. Later in the evening a Hallowe'en menu of food was served.

Arrest Was Framed Says Police Chief

Masontown Chief Of Police Arrested For Extortation Of Auto Driver

(International News Service)

UNIONTOWN Pa., Oct. 27.—Free today under bail until he gets a hearing on charges of extortion preferred against him by state police, Tony Bell, chief of police at Masontown near here declared he is the victim of a "frameup."

Chief Bell was arrested last night. State police say he extorted $100 from the driver of a machine in which there were two quarts of liquor. Bell declared he took the $100 as forfeit money to insure the offender's appearance in court. Bell declared state police from this district are trying to "frame" him because he arrested a state trooper some time ago.

Senior Hi-Y Meet To Practice Play

Senior Hi Y members who are included in the cast of the Hi Y play, "Lets All Get Married," will practice for the first time Monday evening, October 29, at their regular weekly meeting which takes place at the Y. M. C. A.

The club is staging a play in the senior high school sometime in December. Boys will take the parts of girls in the play.

What Does A Good Credit Rating Mean?

It means—confidence, faith, a good name, esteem, honor, prestige, influence and trust.

With these things a man builds his citizenship—stands four square among his fellows.

Without them, he, by degrees, eliminates himself from the affairs of life.

Chest Fund Is Now Over $30,000

Advance Gifts Committee Makes Report At Meeting Friday

OVER 400 SUBSCRIBE AHEAD OF CAMPAIGN

Reporting $6,303 for the last two days of their part of the campaign, the advance gifts committee of the New Castle Community Chest exceeded the quota of $30,000 set for them by Herbert Pearis, director of this year's campaign, when they totaled $31,456.50 for their part of the work.

The last report of the committee was made Friday evening at the team captains and workers dinner, which took place in the east dining room of The Cathedral and was received with loud cheers by the some 300 team workers and captains who were present.

"This is New Castle's roll of honor," declared Mr. Pearis in an interview as he was making known the list of advance givers. "These men and women and business and manufacturing establishments believe in New Castle's charitable, character building and health building institutions. They have given liberally to maintain them. They care, and they have given.

"These individuals and firms were solicited by the advance gifts committee and the 416 of them have subscribed $31,456.50 to the fund for 1928-29. This means that the average subscription of the advance givers lacks but a few cents of being $76."

Following will be found a list of the persons and firms who have subscribed more than one-third of the total chest budget of $80,000:

Turk Is Elected Class President

Seventh Ward Boy Named As Head Of Class At Duquesne University

Earl Turk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Turk of 513 Newell avenue, a freshman at Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, has been honored with the presidency of his class.

The School of Accounts, Finance and Commerce held their first official meeting in Assembly Hall and elected officers to lead the class of 1932 throughout the school year.

The New Castle boy was elected by a large majority over a field of four other candidates. The election was quite a heated affair with the former New Castle High School football star emerging on top. Turk at the present time is a candidate for the Duquesne varsity grid team and will likely see action today in the Geneva-Duquesne game. The first- year ruling kept him out of the W. & J. game, and an attack of boils kept him out of the Loyola game.

Other officers elected by the Duquesne 1932 class include: Tommy Thomas, vice president; Gertrude Straub secretary; Larkin Boyle, treasurer. President Turk has already appointed a social committee to arrange all dances and other social activities for the year, the committee is as follows: Chairman R. E. Wakeman, of Pittsburgh, "Bud" Devinney of Rochester, Leo Stader of Connellsville, Harold Fisher of Pittsburgh, Joe Leone of Pittsburgh, Sebastian C. Isabella of New Castle, and Miss Betty Stewart of Pittsburgh.

New Counterfeit Money Circulated; Public Is Warned

(International News Service)

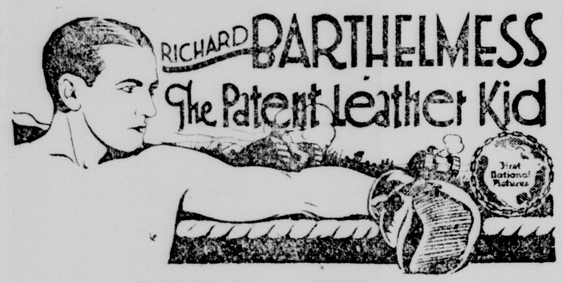

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27. — The public was warned of the circulation of two new counterfeit Federal Reserve notes by Chief W. H. Moran of the Secret Service Friday.

One issue was of $20 denomination on the New York Federal Reserve bank and the other a $10 note on the St. Louis bank. Neither should deceive a careful handler of currency, Norman said.

Anniversary Of Review No. 98 Is Event Of Friday

Observance Of 36th Anniversary Of W. B. A. Celebrated With Fine Program

Review No. 98, Woman's Benefit Association celebrated their thirty-sixth anniversary of the founding of the organization with an appropriate program Friday evening in the Knights of Pythias hall, East Washington street.

The event also honored Mrs. Ada Stone of Butler, Pa., Supreme Lady of Ceremonies. Over two hundred were present.

After the seating of the officers by Captain Fray and her guards with Mrs. Knox at the piano, Mrs. Stone was received, also Mrs. Blanche Raught of Woodlawn. The pioneer Guards with their captain, Mrs. Neff was introduced by the pioneer president, Mrs. Conzett. A drill was put on by this team which was most enjoyed.

Pioneer pins were presented to Mrs. Bromley, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Fout, Mrs. Fox, Mrs. Horner, Mrs. Metz, Mrs. Nolan, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Zeigler by the Pioneer president. Short talks were given by Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Raught of Woodlawn, Mrs. Dufford of Butler Review, Mrs. Mitchelltree, Pulaski Review 201, Mrs. Young of Ellwood City, Mrs. Aiken of Knox, and Mrs. Thomas of Review 98.

The Westway club of Butler, 290, came dressed for a masquerade party. This club put on a short play. The club presented Mrs. Stone with a beautiful pillow and photo album. Woodlawn Review gave Mrs. Stone a pair of pillow slips. Guards and captain of No. 98 gave the supreme lady a necklace and pin and the pioneer president and guards gave here a beautiful picture. She also received some beautiful handkerchiefs.

A little playlet entitled "I'm a Bum" was given by Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Langdon. A reading by Mrs. Goodwill of Ellwood City and a dance by Maxine Bollard was given. Orchestra selections were outstanding features of the evening.

Lunch was served later in the dining room. A large birthday cake centered the table decorated with an orchid candle. The hall was tastefully decorated with the Hallowe'en colors.

Dancing was enjoyed later in the evening. Reviews were present from Butler, Knox, Woodlawn, Ellwood City, Pulaski, Greenville, New Castle Review 89 and Oil City.

The regular meeting of the Review was conducted Friday afternoon. At this time plans were made for a card party on Thursday, November 8.

Sales Manager Appointed Here

Bradford Man Named To Position With Bell Telephone Company

The Bell Telephone company of Pennsylvania has announced the appointment of Milton L. Spangler as sales manager of the New Castle district reporting to W. R. Bingham, district manager.

Mr. Spangler is a resident of Bradford, Pa., and entered the employ of the Telephone company in December, 1919, as a commercial representative. For the past six years he has been manager of the Bradford business office.

His knowledge of conditions in Western Pennsylvania and his experience in the telephone business well qualifies him for his new position.

Lawrence County Raises $168 For Hoover-Curtis

Mrs. Johnson, Chairman Of County Legion, Hopes Ranks Will Be Filled

One hundred and sixty eight dollars has been given by the voters of Lawrence county for the support of the Hoover-Curtis legion, whose aim it is to get 1,000,000 people throughout the United States to subscribe $1.00 each for the support of the Republican campaign, announces Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson, chairman of the league for Lawrence county.

Mrs. Johnson's statement follows:

"The money contributed to the Hoover-Curtis league amounts to $168.00 to date. Two twenty-five dollars contributions have been given, four of five dollars, and the rest one dollar each. At the request of our Republican Standard Bearers this year an effort is being made to enlist money to help bear expenses of the campaign. The slogan is one million dollars through one dollar contributions.

"During the war all our women were enlisted for food conservation under Mr. Hoover. Having served as your chairman then, I deem it an honor and a privilege to enlist under his banner again. All who wish to follow his request, call telephone 220 and a card will be sent to you for your signature.

"That the ranks will all be filled so that Lawrence county can present a solid phalanx is the aim of

Grace Phillips Johnson,
"Chairman of the Hoover-Curtis Legion of Lawrence County."

Blind Rabbi Heard At Temple Israel

Discusses Important Phases Of The Jewish Religion Friday Evening

Rabbi Michael Aaronsohn, national field representative of the Union of Hebrew Congregations, delivered a powerful sermon at Temple Israel Friday evening on the subject, "What Judaism Means." He occupied the pulpit of Rabbi J. B. Menkes and was heard by a large group of interested persons.

During the past four years, Rabbi Aaronsohn has visited every part of the United States and occupied pulpits in many cities, delivering a message of religious faith to the Jews of the country.

Rabbi Michael Aaronsohn was born in Baltimore, Md., in 1896. He was educated in the public schools of that city and graduated from the Baltimore City College in 1913. He entered the Hebrew Union College and University of Cincinnati in 1916.

He enlisted in 1917 at the age of twenty in the First Ohio Infantry, National Guards, which was later absorbed in the 147 regiment, United States Infantry. He received his military training at Camp Sheridan, Alabama. He was promoted from corporal to Battalion Sergeant Major. He was wounded in the Argonne Forest engagement in 1918 and lost the sight of both eyes. He then spent a few months in the Evergreen School for Blind at Baltimore, Md., and then returned to Hebrew Union College and the University of Cincinnati from both of which institutions he graduated in June 1923.

Immediately following his graduation he was engaged by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations to tour the United States to spread the message of Judaism. Rabbi Aaronsohn served six terms as National Chaplain of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, in which capacity he has visited Federal hospitals in all parts of the country.

CELEBRATE NAVY DAY IN NATION

Special Exercises Mark Observance At Washington Navy Yard

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The United States navy today celebrated navy day in every part of the world where there is a naval ship or shore station.

It is a day set apart once a year for the navy to hold open house and let the people who pay for it learn more about it, its duties and meet the officers and men.

In Washington, the font of the navy, exercises were held at the navy yard. An exhibition hourly of "deep sea" diving, pouring of moulton steel for guns and other activities in the turning out the big guns at the naval gun factory were the features of the day.

Pipe Company May Build New Plant In Beaver County

Buy Land Near Ambridge; Refuse To Divulge Future Plans

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 27.—The A. M. Byers Company, a leading pipe manufactory, refused today to disclose what it will do with land purchased in Beaver county near Ambridge.

The land, it is believed, has been purchased for the site of a new plant, but company officials today denied a statement they were quoted as having given out last night declaring the Byers concern is planning a $25,000,000 plant there.

Rumors, still persisting, of a merger between Byers and Spang, Chalfant and Company, again were denied today by both concerns.

Another Story Without A Name

Wherein The Modern Dan McGrew Proves To Be An Ivory Artist

A corn cob pipe, tattered raiment, soiled hands, unkempt hair; this was all a part of the man. He wandered into the lobby of the Y. M. C. A. for reasons of his own and sat awhile. He sat staring idly out the window at the cars and persons travelling the street and sidewalks. His gaze wandered about the room pausing here, resting there, and finally to the piano which stands in the center of the lobby.

Something akin to the recognition of an old friend seemed to light his eyes. He got slowly to his feet and walked casually to the piano as if on an inspection tour of some sort. He reached the instrument, sat down, and thumped here and there for a second as if desirous of finding a whistle or perhaps a bad key.

The other loungers looked up with an air of disguest as if to say," Why don't that fool stop thumping," or "Do we have to listen to that bum amuse himself?"

It was several minutes until the man, apparently through wandering over the keys, struck a chord. He followed it with another, and still another and then with a volley of stacatto music, solemn music, sweet music and then a waft of the classical.

The loungers no longer looked askance. Their eyes asked for more but their surprise stilled their voices. When the man finished, he looked at the piano, smiled grimly, and without a word, stuck his hands in the pockets of his tattered jacket and walked out into the street.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Woman's club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. C. H. Butler, Main street, with 25 ladies present. A very interesting meeting which was greatly enjoyed by all.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Boethian class of the Presbyterian Sunday school enjoyed its annual Hallowe'en masquerade social recently. From the comments passed the ladies had one of the most enjoyable events of the kind ever held. Thirty ladies were present.

ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Ray McBride and Mrs. Harry Kirkwood were joint hostesses Thursday night when they entertained the Ebbert Circle at the home of the former. Hallowe'en colors were carried out in the decorations both table and house. Places for 24 guests were laid at the table. This party combined a greater surprise than just the novelties of Hallowe'en with its goodies, games, etc. Small hats were favors at the places strung with the orange and black ribbon extending to the chandelier. Inside of the hat was a card bearing the announcement of the marriage of one of the Ebbert Circle, Miss Meryle Galbreath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Galbreath, Beaver street, to Clarence Blythe, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Blythe, Main street, who stole a march on their friends Thursday, motored to Rousville, Pa., and were united in marriage by the bride's brother, Rev. P. A. Galbreath, returning home Thursday evening in time to participate in the Ebbert Hallowe'en celebration, also the shower for the bride. Some very pretty and useful gifts were presented to Mrs. Blythe with the best wishes from the host of friends. The young couple had their apartment ready to go to in the new bank building on Church and Main streets. The guests present were Mrs. R. Ebbert, Mrs. E. S. Luce, Mrs. Charles Galbreath, Mrs. P. I. Anderson, Mrs. J. D. Kirkwood, Mrs. Charles Boyer, Mrs. M. J. Winger, Mrs. John Kirkwood, Mrs. Oscar Baker, Mrs. Melke, Mrs. Harry Kirkwood, Misses Pearl Truby, Sara Neuswander, Nellie Grinnen, Marguerite Maher, Thelma Allen, Fern and Thelma Dindinger, Velma Minner, Mildred Blythe, Lillian Guy and Lou Guy.

Prizes for the best dressed lady went to Miss Pearl Truby for the homeliest one Miss Sara Neuswander. A delicious Hallowe'en menu was served by the joint hostesses.

WALMO

BRIDGE CLUB

Miss Merle Riley entertained the members of the Walmo Bridge club at her home this week. This meeting was a surprise party in honor of the birthday anniversary of her sister, Miss Dorothy Riley. Hallowe'en stunts and tricks were the entertainment of the evening.

A dainty lunch was served by the hostess. Color tones of yellow and white were used in the lunch and the guest of honor carved the cake, which was lighted with yellow candles.

The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Zelma Nesbitt.

No. 11
A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to article nine, section eight of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby proposed in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

That article nine, section eight of the Constitution of Pennsylvania is hereby amended read as follows:

Section 8. The debt of any city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as provided herein and in section fifteen of this article, shall never exceed seven (7) per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, and the debt of any county except as provided in section fifteen of this article shall never exceed ten (10) per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable realty therein; but the debt of the City of Philadelphia may be increased in such amount that the total aggregate of said city shall not exceed fourteen (14) per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable realty therein; nor shall any such county, municipality, or district incur any new debt or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two (2) per centum upon such assessed valuation of taxable realty in the case of counties, or taxable property in the case of other municipalities or districts, without the consent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law, but the City of Philadelphia may incur any debt or increase its indebtedness to an amount not exceeding three per centum of the valuation of taxable realty in said city without the consent of the electors. In ascertaining the borrowing capacity of the City of Philadelphia at any time, there shall be deducted from such debt so much of the debt of said city as shall have been incurred or is about to be incurred and the proceeds thereof expended or about to be expended upon any public improvement, or in the construction, purchase or condemnation of any public utility or part thereof or facility therefor to the extent that such public improvement or public utility or part thereof, whether separately or in connection with any other public improvement or public utility or part thereof, may yield or may reasonably be expected to yield revenue in excess of operating expenses for the payment of the interest and sinking fund charges thereon. The method of determining such amount so to be deducted shall be prescribed by the General Assembly.

In incuring indebtedness for any purpose the City of Philadelphia may issue its obligations, maturing not later than fifty (50) years from the date thereof, with provision for a sinking fund sufficient to retire said obligations at maturity. The payment to such sinking fund to be in equal or graded, annual, or other periodical instalments. Where any indebtedness shall be or shall have been incurred by said City of Philadelphia for the purpose of the construction or improvements of public works or utilities of any character from which income or revenue is to be derived by said city, or for the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of wharves or docks owned or to be owned by said city, such obligations may be in an amount sufficient to provide for and may include the amount of the interest and sinking fund charges accruing and which may accrue thereon throughout the period of construction and until the expiration of one year after the completion of the work for which said indebtedness shall have been incurred, and said city shall not be required to levy a tax to pay said interest and sinking fund charges as required by section ten, article nine of the Constitution of Pennsylvania until the expiration of said period of one year after the completion of said work.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to article eight, section seven, of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met. That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby proposed in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

That section seven, of article eight, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 7. All laws regulating the holding of elections by the citizens, or for the registration of electors, shall be uniform throughout the State except that laws regulating and requiring the registration of electors may be enacted to apply to cities only, provided that such laws be uniform for cities of the same class, and except further, that the General Assembly shall, by general law, permit the use of voting machines, or other mechanical devices for registering or recording and computing the vote, at all elections or primaries, in any county, city, borough or township of the Commonwealth, at the option of the electors of such county, city, borough or township, without being obliged to require the use of such voting machines or mechanical devices in any other county, city, borough or township, under such regulations with reference thereto as the General Assembly may from time to time, prescribe. The General Assembly may, from time to time, prescribe the number and duties of election officers in any political sub-division of the Commonwealth in which voting machines or other mechanical devices authorized by this section may be used.

No. 14
A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to article fifteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, by adding thereto a new section to be known as section four thereof.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met. That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby proposed in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

Section 4. The General Assembly is hereby authorized to provide for the consolidation of the county, poor districts, cities, boroughs and townships of the county of Allegheny, and the officers thereof, into a consolidated city and county, with the constitutional and legal capacity of a municipal corporation, to be known as the City of Pittsburgh, and to provide for a charter for its government. The said charter shall be submitted to the electors of said county at a special election to be provided for therein. If the majority of the electors voting thereon, in the county as a whole, and at least two-thirds of all the electors voting thereon in each of a majority of the cities, boroughs and townships thereof, vote in the affirmative the act shall take effect for the whole county. If rejected, the said charter may be resubmitted to the electors in original new or modified form, at any subsequent election until adopted.

It shall be competent, subject to the police power of the State, for the Legislature to provide in said charter:

1. For the exercise, by the consolidated city, of all the powers and duties vested in the county of Allegheny, and the poor districts thereof, and such other powers appropriate to a municipality as may be specified therein, except such powers as are specifically reved by this section to the municipal divisions herein provided for.

2. For the election, by the people of the consolidated city, of a board of commissioners, the number to be fixed by the charter, in lieu of present county commissioners, in which board shall be vested all the powers of the consolidated city and county, except as otherwise provided in the charter.

3. For the organization of a government for the consolidated city and county, and for the election or appointment of the constitutional and other necessary officers thereof, and for their powers and duties.

4. For the organization of all courts, other than those of record in the consolidated city, and for the procedure thereof, and for the appointment of judges and officers thereof, which courts shall exercise the jurisdiction, powers and duties of the magistrates, aldermen and justices of the peace, and such other powers as may be conferred by law.

5. For the transfer to the consolidated city of the property and indebtedness of the county of Allegheny, and the poor districts thereof, and of such property and indebtedness of the cities, boroughs and townships thereof as relate to the powers and duties of said consolidated city, and to provide for an equitable adjustment and payment of such indebtedness, and for this purpose, any taxation therein shall be uniform taxation within the meaning and intent of other provisions of the Constitution.

6. For the assessment of property for taxation, the levying and collection of taxes, and the payment of the cost of any public improvement, in whole or in part, by special assessment upon abutting and nonabutting property materially benefited thereby, and, for this purpose, real estate so charged shall be classified as urban, suburban, and rural, and the assessments made in accordance with such classifications.

7. For the creation, by the board of commissioners, of districts for the purpose of regulating the location, height, area, bulk and use of buildings and premises.

8. For the creation, by the board of commissioners, of special districts for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, maintaining, operating or contracting for, any public property, work, improvement, utility or service, not for the exclusive benefit of any one municipal division, and for the payment of the costs and maintenance of such property, work, improvement, utility or service, there may be special taxes levied throughout such special districts respectively, separate and apart from the general city tax.

Provided, however, That it is the intent of this section that substantial powers be reserved to the cities, boroughs and townships situated in Allegheny County. To this end the charter shall provide for the continued existence of the said cities, boroughs and townships, as municipal divisions of the consolidated city, under their present names and forms of government, subject to the laws provided for government of municipalities of their respective forms and classes, except as provided in the charter, and with their present boundaries, provided that the City of Pittsburgh may be designated by a term other than city and may be divided into two or more municipal divisions, and that any two or more municipal divisions of the consolidated city may, with the consent of a majority of the electors voting thereon in each of such divisions at any general or special election, be united to form a single municipal division.

The said municipal divisions shall have and continue to possess the following powers:

1. The constitutional and legal capacity of municipal corporations, except as limited in the charter.

2. The power to lay and collect taxes and to incur indebtedness, subject to the limitations which are or may be imposed by law upon cities, boroughs or townships of corresponding classification, for the purpose of carrying out any lawful power of said divisions.

3. The power to acquire, own, construct, maintain, operate or contract for any of the of public property, works, improvements, utilities or services, which shall be within the municipal division, and principally for the use and benefit of the inhabitants thereof, provided this power shall not be taken to include the construction and maintenance of through-traffic streets and bridges, tunnels, subways and appurtenances thereof, nor main or trunk lines for sewer, power and water service, running through more than one municipal division, and designated as such by the board of commissioners.

4. The power to maintain a local police force, and local fire department, with the necessary buildings, appurtenances and equipment therefor, which may be supplemental to the police force and fire department of the consolidated city.

5. The power to establish a limitation of indebtedness of the consolidated city and the municipal divisions thereof, provided that the total of the indebtedness of the consolidated city and the municipal divisions thereof shall not, in the aggregate, exceed the limits of the total indebtedness allowed by the Constitution to the county and to the separate municipalities.

6. All other powers not specifically granted by the charter to the consolidate city. Provided, however, That a municipal division may surrender, by majority vote of the electors voting theron at any general or special election, any of its powers to the consolidated city, subject to the acceptance thereof by the board of commissioners.

The said charter may be amended by the Legislature, subject to ratification by a majority of the electors of the consolidated city voting theron at any general or special election. Provided, That no amendment reducing the powers of municipal divisions shall be effective unless ratified by a majority of the electors voting thereon in each of a majority of said divisions.

Section 8. He shall nominate and, by, and with the advice and consent of two-thirds of all the members of the Senate, appoint a Secretary of the Commonwealth, a Secretary of Internal Affairs, and an Attorney-General, during pleasure; a Superintendent of Public Instruction for four years, and such other offices of the Commonwealth, as he is, or may be, authorized by the Constitution or by law to appoint. He shall have power to fill all vacancies that may happen in offices to which he may appoint, during the recess of the Senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session. He shall have power to fill any vacancy that may happen, during the recess of the Senate in the office of Auditor General, State Treasurer, Secretary of Internal Affairs, or Superintendent of Public Instruction in a judicial office, or in any other elective office which he may be authorized to fill. If the vacancy shall happen during the session of the Senate, the Governor shall nominate to the Senate, before their final adjournment, a proper person to fill said vacancy but in any such case of vacancy, in any office, no person shall be chosen to said office on the next election day appropriate to such office according to the provisions of this Constitution, unless the vacancy shall happen within the calendar months immediately preceding such election day, in which case the election for said office shall be held on the second succeeding election day appropriate to such office. In acting on executive nominations the Senate shall sit with open doors, and, in confirming or rejecting the nominations of the Governor, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays and shall be entered on the journal.

Section 2. Amend section twenty-one, article four of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to read as follows:

Section 21. The terms of the Auditor General and the State Treasurer shall each be four years, and they shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the State at general elections but a State Treasurer, elected in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, shall serve for three years, and his successor shall be elected at the general election in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and in every fourth year thereafter. No person elected to the office of Auditor General or State Treasurer shall be capable of holding the same office for two consecutive terms.

The Story Of The Hawaiian Islands
The Annexation Of Hawaii

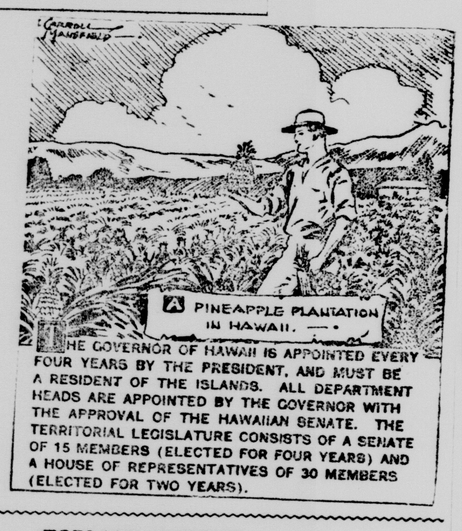

WHEN THE ELECTION OF McKINLEY IN 1896 RESTORED THE REPUBLICANS TO POWER, THE QUESTION OF ANNEXING THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS TO THE UNITED STATES CAME UP AGAIN. IN 1898, AFTER DEWEY'S VICTORY AT MANILA BAY HAD GIVEN US A FOOTHOLD IN THE PHILIPPINES, HAWAII SUDDENLY BECAME OF GREAT MILITARY IMPORTANCE TO THE UNITED STATES.

NEGOTIATIONS TO ANNEX THE ISLANDS WERE BEGUN, AND A TREATY MAKING HAWAII A PART OF THE TERRITORY OF THE UNITED STATES WAS RATIFIED BY THE HAWAIIAN LEGISLATURE AND PASSED BY A JOINT RESOLUTION OF CONGRESS ON JULY 7, 1898.

UNDER THE TERMS OF THE TREATY THE CHINESE INHABITANTS OF HAWAII WERE FORBIDDEN TO COME TO THE UNITED STATES, AND THE ISLANDS WERE LEFT OUTSIDE THE CUSTOMS LIMITS. APRIL 30, 1900, THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS WERE CREATED A TERRITORY BY AN ACT OF CONGRESS.

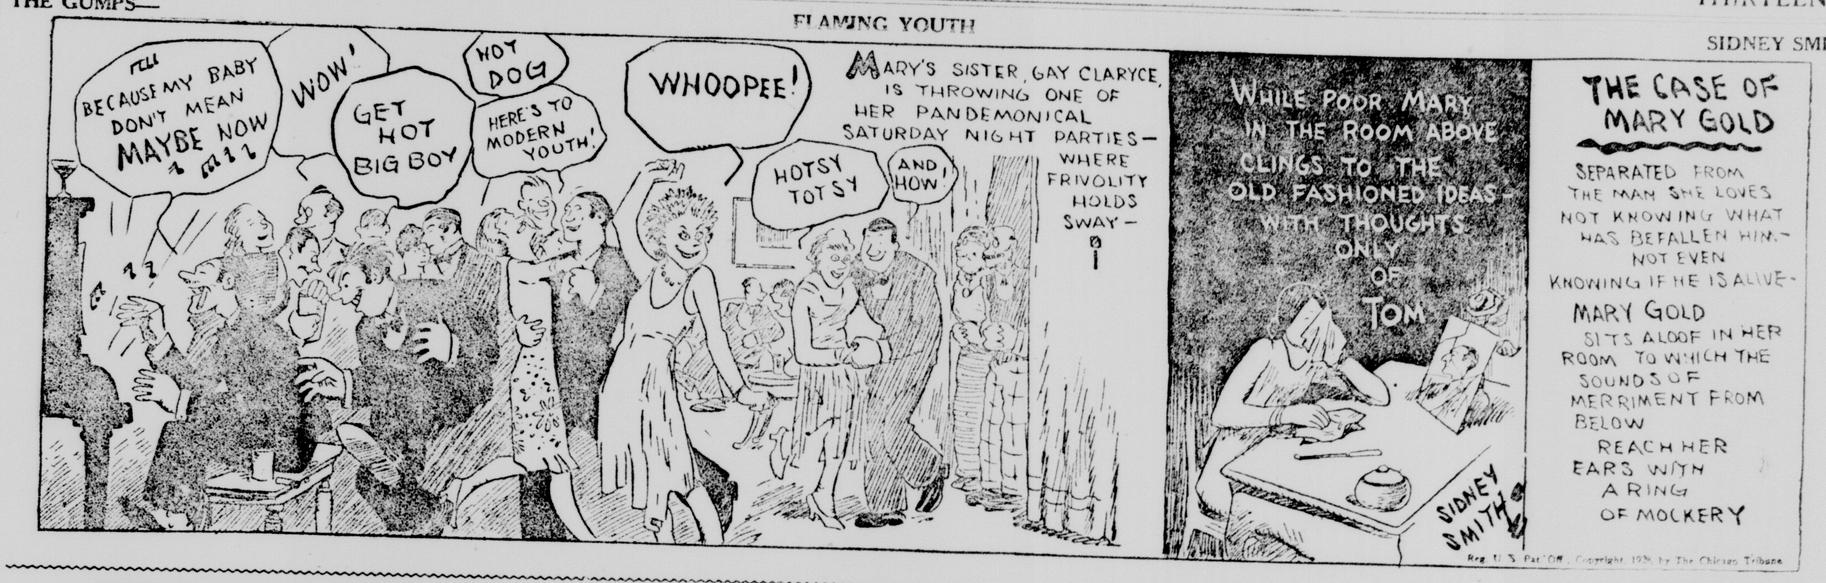

THE GOVERNOR OF HAWAII IS APPOINTED EVERY FOUR YEARS BY THE PRESIDENT, AND MUST BE A RESIDENT OF THE ISLANDS. ALL DEPARTMENT HEADS ARE APPOINTED BY THE GOVERNOR WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE HAWAIIAN SENATE. THE TERRITORIAL LEGISLATURE CONSISTS OF A SENATE OF 15 MEMBERS (ELECTED FOR FOUR YEARS) AND A HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 30 MEMBERS (ELECTED FOR TWO YEARS).

Davies To Box Johnny McCoy

Hopes To Prove Decision To McCoy Was No More Than Gift

CHET SMALLWOOD TO BOX AL ST. JOHN

FIFTY-TWO hours from the time this sports page rolls from the press the bell will ring at Jolly Bowl and Willie Davies, the "boy of many ducks", and Johnny McCoy who carries a lethal potion in his right will stage their quarrel at Jolly Bowl.

Davies is anxious to prove that McCoy's victory at Hollywood was not a victory at all, but a present from the officials, while McCoy hopes to show that having "defeated" Davies once, he is capable of repeating.

When they fought in Hollywood it was a spectacular battle. The decision met with a divergence of opinion. Some writers and fans said Davies had won and others agreed with the decision. Be all this as it is, Monday night will decide "Who's Who" now.

Fast and Crafty

Davies won a "home" here by wading through Carl Cavelli, Jose Allano, Luis Carpentero and Ernie Peters, but McCoy has yet to "make" himself publistically. If he defeats Davies in their coming bout he need have no fear of where he can earn his "cakes".

Davies is fast as lightning. He hits quick and accurately. However, he has failed to produce a knockout punch. McCoy is fast, cagey, and while he may not be every iota as clever as Davies, he can produce a knockout whenever his right hits the proverbial "button".

Should both fighters, who are flyweights, perform according to past form and expectation, the fans who journey to the enclosed bowl should see a fistic show beyond repetition. In fact, from most fans the opinion is gained that it will be a pugilistic extravaganza.

Belmont Meets Peck

Davies will not arrive in the city until Monday morning. Willie never trains on Sunday other than to take a short walk. McCoy will arrive late Sunday night to avoid a train ride from Buffalo. This will give him a chance to lose his "train legs" before the "go".

Jimmie Belmont, the Braddock puncher, and George Peck, the P. R. R. welterweight king, fight in the six-round semi-final. The last time Belmont fought here he stretched Johnny Hanlon like a row of carpet. Previously he walloped a couple of other "tin ears".

Chet Smallwood, the blonde southpaw who made Frankie Moran look like a sillin' platter, will take on Al St. John, who speaks good of himself. Al believes that he can put a knockout right on Smallwood's jowl.

Big Evening Expected

Nothing much hereabouts is known of Al, but if he is half as good as he believes he is this person Chet is in for a rather busy evening's evenin'. In order to do that St. John must take his right into the ring with him.

Andy Novak of Turtle Creek and Davy Davies, a brother to Willie, but no relation to "D. O." of councilmanic fame, will fight the second four-round bout. Dave Carter, a 175-pounder from Charleroi, will tackle Elmo the Mighty.

Elmo Battles Carter

Originally Elmo had been carded to fight Maxie Brown last night at Youngstown, but someone said: "This Carter is tough", so Mr. Elmo said: "I'll lay away from Brown, get him later and in the meantime take on this visitor, Mr. Carter."

The bowl has been roofed entirely, is warm and no doubt the usual big crowd which always greets this little Welsh-American will turn out to see McCoy and the battle. The first bout will start at 8:15 p. m., Jolly Bowl time, which mean's "promptly".

Southern Cross Flier Divorced

(International News Service)

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Charles E. Kingsford-Smith, one of the crew of the plane Southern Cross which made a trans-Pacific flight from Oakland, Cal., to Sydney, N. S. W., last June, has been granted a divorce in Australia on grounds of desertion, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Sydney Friday.

With an airplane landing on a gridiron during a game, football soon will be looked upon as a dangerous sport. The Canton Daily News.

Fidel LaBarba, former flyweight champion and Bushy Graham, bantamweight champion have been matched to box ten rounds November 20 at Los Angeles.

There will be a strange referee and two judges from Pittsburgh as officials at Jolly Bowl Monday night according to Promoter William Jolly.

At 7 o'clock today a long line of automobiles with red and black ribbon flying to the wind departed for Washington, Pa., where Ne-Ca-Hi and Washington high stage a grid classic.

Joe McTague, jockey was hurt yesterday at Empire City, N. Y. when Fred Buell and Compensation, two runners fell at the top of the stretch It is feared McTague is seriously injured.

A 75-mile and consolation 25-mile auto racing program will be staged at Butler track this afternoon. The eliminations were completed before noon.

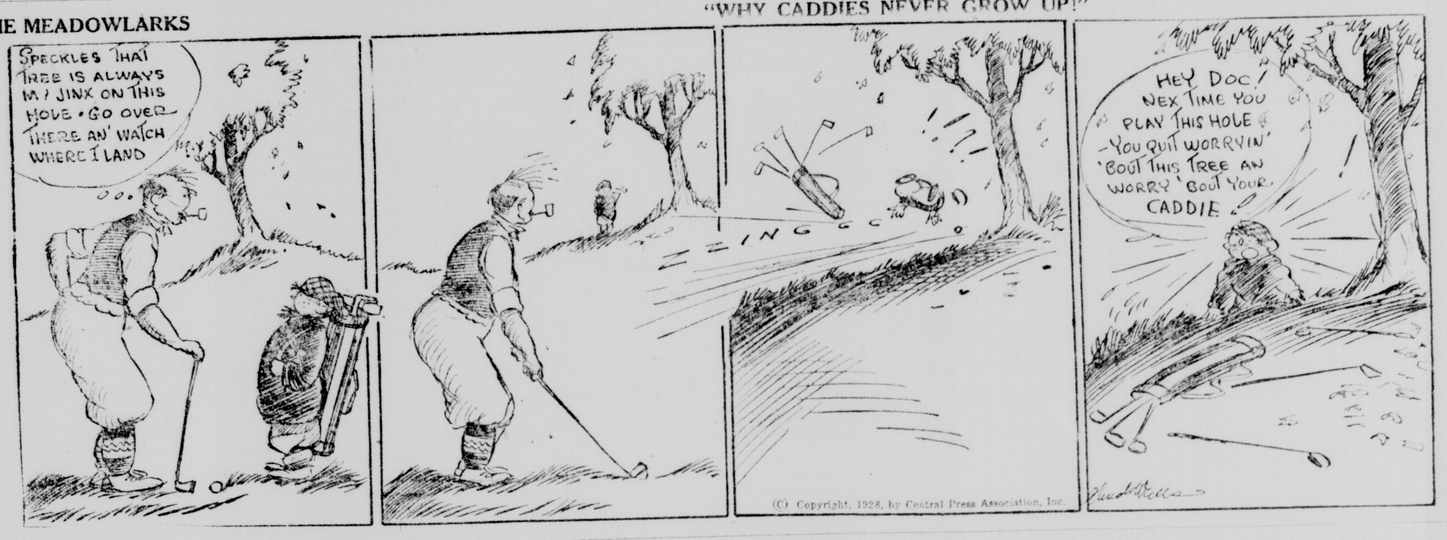

Graham-La Barba Sign For Battle

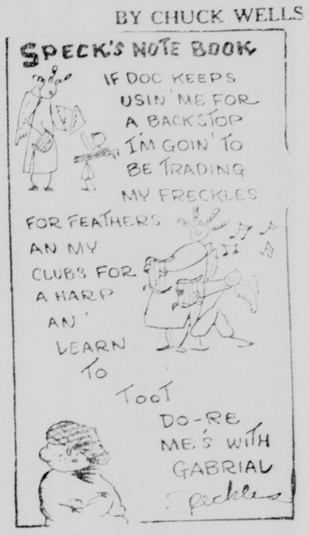

(International News Service)

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 27.—Bushy Graham, recognized in New York as the world's batamweight champion will defend his title here on November 20 against Fidel La Barba, retired flyweight champion. The bout was signed Friday by Matchmaker Wadhams. The fighters have agreed to scale not more than 118 pounds at 2 p. m on the day of the fight which is slated for ten rounds.

Washington Wins From Mahoning Hi

George Washington Junior High Is Victor By 24 To 7 Score

MAHONING TALLIES IN FINAL QUARTER

Scoring 12 points in both the first and last quarters the fast George Washington Junior High school team defeated Mahoning Junior High Friday afternoon on Ben Franklin field when they won by a score of 24 to 7. Mahoning's touchdown came at the beginning of the fourth quarter and a pass over the goal line netted the extra point.

This was the only time that the Mahoning team got within scoring distance of the George Washington goal.

Owens accounted for six points for Washington in the first quarter when he recovered a fumble behind the Mahoning goal, thus scoring a touchdown.

Again Washington kicked off to Mahoning and again Owen recovered a fumble. An end run by Burns netted a first down and on the next play Burns ran 20 yards for a touchdown. The try for point failed. Just after Washington had kicked off again the period ended with a 12 to 0 score favoring Washington.

Mahoning Scores

In the second and third quarters the ball see-sawed between the two teams neither one having much advantage, Mahoning's lone tally came early in the fourth quarter on an end run. The try for point was successful.

Sotus proved himself the star for the Washington gladiators in the fourth period when he bucked the ball down the field and over the goal line. Again the Washington team lost the try for point. Shortly afterwards the ball again in Washington's possession, Kay on a pass from Uram ran for a touchdown. The try for point failed. Washington had just kicked off when the final whistle blew. Score George Washington 24, Mahoning 7.

Crew Of Krassin Awarded Honors

(International News Service)

MOSCOW, Oct. 27—The whole crew of the famous Russian rescue ship—the ice breaker Krassin—are now on a tour of the republic following the decoration of seven leaders of the two Nobile relief expeditions carried by the Krassin and her sister ship, the Maligin.

These intrepid rescue workers who struggled in the Arctic ice wastes for more than three months in search of survivors of Gen. Umberto Nobile's north pole flight, and who finally rescued 16 persons, have been decorated with the order of red flag, the highest award for bravery that the soviet government bestows.

Nine others were made "heroes of labor." Every one of the 140 officers and men aboard the two ice breakers was given a bonus of one month's pay and an additional bonus of 50 per cent of his pay.

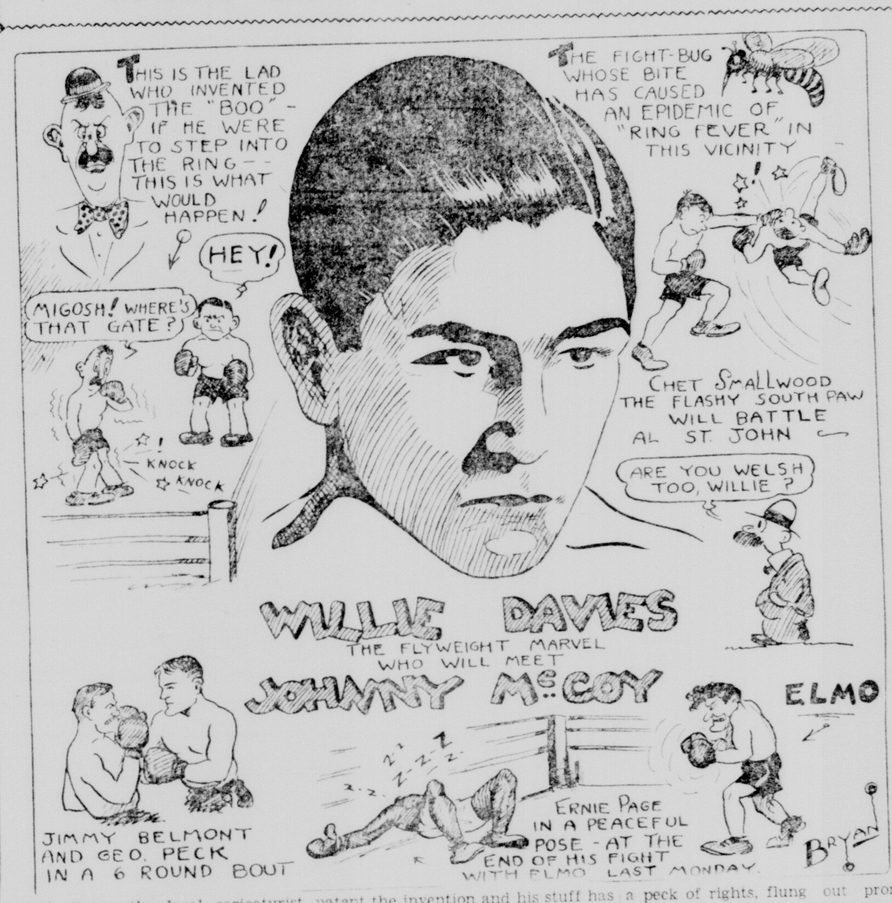

GRID CAPTAINS

With Johnny Garvey, Yale halfback, running the ends and tearing off yard after yard, the Elis have forgotten there ever was such a player as Bruce Caldwell.

"Stop Garvey" is the slogan in the east. But even though Johnny is a marked man in every game it doesn't seem to stop him much. Against Brown he played 12 minutes and scored 12 points.

Pen Sketches Of "Tin Ears" Who Strut At Jolly Bowl

Jack Bryan the local caricaturist who delights in depicting fisctic scenery after three days spent in the midst of members of the fistic colony has been able to study the "fight bug" that is responsible for inoculating men and women of this city with "ring fever. He reports that it is less than the size of a cold germ but is more powerful and once its fangs strike a human they never recover from the fever. He also got a "close-up' on Mr. Boo Hoo the man who invented the "Boo." However, he didn't patent the invention and his stuff has been stolen by sundry persons who do not agree, and in some instances who refuse to agree with decisions. Willie Davies of course if of Welsh stock and injecting the hyphen can be termed a Welsh-American. Chet Smallwood, the fast and busy-body left-handed fighter is depicted in a recent scene as is Jimmie Belmont who fights George Peck. It wouldn't be surprising were George to run into a peck of rights, flung out promiscuously. And Elmo—how could the artist forget him. He can't and furthermore reported he doesn't want to. The "Black Walnut" one Ernie Page who for a time played the "Black Menace" to Elmo the Mighty has been tucked away, apparently for keeps. Bryan will be there with his pen and pad Monday night as usual as he also is suffering with "ring fever."

New Castle High Gridders Battle Washington Today

New Castle High Football Team Meeting Crucial Test At Washington

LOCALS TRAIN ON COLLEGE FIELD

By "BUGS" WALTHER.

With the mythical championship of the W. P. I. A. L. at stake today, the powerful New Castle High school football team is battling Washington High at Washington, Pa. The game was scheduled to start at 2:30 o'clock.

Coach Philip H. Bridenbaugh gave his red and black team a final workout at College field on Friday afternoon and pronounced them fit and ready for the stiff battle that is expected this afternoon.

Both teams are undefeated or tied in league play this season and both are ranked as leading contenders for the schoolboy title of Western Pennsylvania. Today's game will either eliminate one of the teams or both. A deadlocked game would put both teams out of the running provided some other team fails to lose or tie any of their games.

By automobile and special train several thousand football fans of Lawrence county made the pilgrimage to Washington.

The Senior High school uniformed band was present at the game today to play in conjunction with the newly organized Washington High band and several other bands and drum corps.

The New Castle delegation will be tendered a dance tonight at the George Washington hotel. The special train is due to leave Washington late tonight.

ST. VITUS GRIDDERS CANCEL BUTLER GAME

The St. Vitus school football team has canceled the grid game to be played with the Butler Bulldogs at Butler on Monday afternoon.

Injuries to two of the St. Vitus players in practice necessitated the calling off of the game.

Triple-Threater

One of the new triple-threat sensations of the football season is this fellow, Porter Lainhart, crack sophomore halfback of the State college of Washington, at Pullman, Wash. He's a fine ball carrier, a good punter and is great running interference.

Movie Party At Country Club By The B. J. Bells

"A Night In Hollywood" Honors Johnstown Visitors To Ellwood City, At Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 27.—Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slep and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Walker, of Johnstown, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Burton Bell of Glen avenue, entertained friends at the Ellwood Country Club Friday evening at a movie party. Each guest was requested to come as a famous film star, and the result was more than could have possibly been expected.

Characters were present from "Buster Keaton" to "Lillian Gish" and a program of dancing and specialty numbers was enjoyed. The scene was a Hollywood night club, and Mrs. Bell welcomed the guests as "Texas Guinan." The lounge of the club was cleared for dancing and around the edge were small tables decorated with gingham covers and appropriate candles.

Judges of the prizes were Mr. Walker and Mr. Slep, and were awarded as follows: Mrs. Theodore Markwort "Alice White of the Show Girl"; Mrs. Rolland Haines "Topsy of Topsy and Eva"; Miss Claire Smith, "Gilda Grey"; Mrs. Henry Schneck, "Eva of Topsy and Eva"; Rolland Haines, "Loyd Hamilton"; Charles French, "Lillian Gish in the Scarlet Letter", and Bruce Hunter, a Hula dancer.

Specialty numbers were:: A Mock Wedding, with Mrs. W. R. Thompson, Dr. W. C. Hayes, and Tom Daley, featured; Topsy and Eva, singing "Baby Sister Blues"; Prof. Charles French playing "The Last Rose of Summer", and Bruce Hunter and Claire Smith, a dancing specialty.

The evening concluded with Bill McGlincey acting as Cameraman for Director Bell, and taking moving pictures of the "Stars."

The guest list comprised: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Aylesworth, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Daley, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles French, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Gelbach, Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Haines, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. David Hamilton, Walter Harris, Miss Marian Slocum, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Markwort, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moltrup, Mr. and Mrs. William McGlincey, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Passemore, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schenck, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Thompson, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Dyke, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zeigler and Mr. and Mrs. John Rohrer.

ELLWOOD CITY PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Loring Gelbach of Second street, motored to Pittsburgh yesterday to join a party en route to the homecoming game at State College today.

Capt. and Mrs. Howell Jenkins of Ewing Park were Pittsburgh visitors Friday evening where they attended a regimental inspection and ball at the Armory.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Haines of Fourth street, motored to the Grove City-Allegheny game today at Meadville. This evening they will attend a dance at the Sagertown Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hunter of West Short street, are attending the Pitt-Carnegie Tech game in Pittsburgh today.

CONCERT POSTPONED

Ellwood City, Oct. 27.—The concert which was scheduled to take place Friday evening in the Methodist church under the auspices of the Ladies Aid society, was postponed until later owing to a conflict in dates.

G. A. R. Ladies Hear Department Head

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 27.—Members of the G. A. R. had the pleasure of hearing an address by Mrs. Josephine Mateer, department head from Altoona Friday evening at the Pythian hall on the occasion of their regular semi-monthly meeting. Mrs. Mateer gave a splendid talk on G. A. R. work.

A regular business meeting was conducted and routine matters dispensed. At the next meeting of the department, there will be formal nomination of officers for the coming year.

Last night's meeting concluded with the serving of light refreshments by the committee in charge: Mrs. Anna Long, Mrs. Terza Weimer and Miss Alberta Thompson.

THE WORLD HAS A NEW AND FINER MOTOR CAR

"400" Special Six Sedan $1345 f. o. b. factory (as illustrated)

"Welcome!" That's what America has said to the Twin-Ignition Motor

FROM the very day of the introduction of the new Nash "400", keen public interest has surrounded the new Twin-Ignition motor—

People everywhere are telling other people that they've never driven a car with so much sparkle and enthusiasm in its action—

—Or one that is as smooth and quiet at every speed, clear up to the top—

—Or one that needs so little gasoline.

Twin ignition, with high compression in the valve-in-head motor means more power, more snap, more speed, using ordinary gasoline, and less of it.

Before you buy your new car, come in. We'll give you the key to a Twin-Ignition-Motored "400". You take it out, and take a ride. That's all we ask!

* In the first three months following the "400" introduction "400" sales were nearly 75,000 cars, 14,000 more than the total of the best previous July, the best previous August and the best previous September in all Nash history.

9 Sedans from $885 to $1990, 8 Coupes, Cabriolets, Victorias from $885 to $1775, f. o. b. factory

N. Y. STOCKS

By W. S. COUSINS
International News Service Financial Editor

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The sharp rallies in the industrial stock leaders at the beginning of trading today convinced Wall Street that Friday's closing slump was principally the result of a well-timed bear raid, with the opening up of stop-loss orders in an avalanche of selling. The steel stocks and the motors, with a few of the high-priced specialties, were the leaders in the aggressive come-back of prices, which the rails, with St. Louis and Southwestern up 7 points to 122 in active trading.

The "Big Bulls" in Wall Street were not adverse to broadcasting their views on the stock market. Returning in fine fettle from Europe, William C. Durant forecasted a price of 300 for General Motors, with a 2½-for-1 as the most likely split-up for the stock when the directors meet on November 12. General Motors rallied about 4 points to 219½ in the first hour and Chrysler regained about three points of its lost ground.

Most of the week-end banking and economic reviews reported a good gain in industrial activity and production, though retail trade was retarded in some places by the weather. Bankers forecasted a tighter money situation next week, due to the preparation for heavy November-first financing of interest and dividend payments, but most of the funds so acculated will return to the banks by the end of the week.

Radio corporation spurted 11 points to 237 in the second hour as buying demand for the stock flowed in from all sources. Powerful pool operations in the stock, under the direction of William C. Durant, were reported in Wall Street, with demand for the stock sufficient to absorb all offerings at a rising scale of prices. Western Union also sold higher on reports of negotiations for an important "working agreement" between the two companies.

All sections of the market boomed along to higher price levels in the second hour. United States Steel was a favorite in the high-priced industrials, advancing 3 points to above 162 in active trading. The coppers were generally quiet, notwithstanding the rise in copper metal price to 16 cents a pound, which had predicted for the current year, but not as early as the last week in October.

Jordan Motors moved up briskly to above 19 in continuation of the movement which has been an outstanding feature of the low-priced motor shares this week. According to rumors the Jordan property will be taken over and consolidated with the Chandler and possibly one or two other well known motor car manufacturers.

Atlantic Refining led the rally in the oils, with a 6-point jump to 226. Sinclair, Marland, Phillips and other important independent oils were firm, with only fractional recoveries. Utility stocks were inactive but firm.

Copper's advance to the 16-cent level was the feature of the commodity markets.

The rally in all sections of the market continued in the final period, though in few cases was the total of Friday's closing losses recovered. The steel and copper stocks, with a few of the selected motors, displayed conspicuous strength near the close and most of the rails were firm.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF NEW YORK MARKET

By W. S. COUSINS
International News Service Financial Editor

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—An increase of $107,903,000 in brokers' loans on stock and bond collateral to a new peak of $4,772,293,000, as reported this week by the Federal Reserve Board, was evidence aplenty of the expanding nation-wide interest in the security markets, the vast accumulation of stocks at ever-increasing prices and the enormous influx of capital to the financial center of the country.

Important Week

From the industrial standpoint, the week may be considered as one of the most important mile-posts in the spectacular march of American prosperity. Corporation earnings reports for the third quarter of the year in almost every instance revealed a more profitable condition of affairs than had been generally believed even by the best informed financial circles. The General Motors Corporation, for example, with earnings of $240,534,612 in the first nine months of the year, has already piled up an aggregate net income exceeding the whole of the record of 1927.

The Bethlehem Steel Corporation, as an incidental to its brilliant third quarterly report, told stockholders this week that its wheels were now moving at 95 per cent of the total capacity of their plants, that largest in the history of the company. Heads of the General Electric Company, DuPont Company, Western Union, Radio and other corporations too numerous to mention had no hesitancy this week in saying that their companies will earn more money in 1928 than in any other period-time year in their entire histories. After three lean and barren years, the oil industry is giving evidence of stepping forth into the atmosphere of prosperity enjoyed by its kindred industries. Coal production has been curbed, prices increased and representative companies placed on a profitable basis.

Copper Metals Soar

For further evidence of progress the testimony of the principal commodity, foodstuffs and metals markets might be cited. Copper metal rose to 16 cents a pound for foreign delivery and 15¾ cents for domestic, the highest in nearly five years. Sharp advances were reported in scrap iron prices, in pig iron and in various finished steel products. Members of the iron and steel industry in convention here this week commented enthusiastically on current operations and immediate future prospects of their own industries.

Disregarding handicaps of all kinds, the rise of speculative borrowing, the 8 per cent call loan rate and heavy profit-taking in the fast climbing speculative favorites, the stock market surged a head to new high price levels in one of the most active weeks on record. Powerful demonstrations of the strength of the oil and copper stocks were encouraging to the patient holders of stock of this class, the former of which have been the black sheep of the market for many months.

New Price Records

A score or more of the best known industrial stocks established new high records for all time as wave after wave of buying demand swept into Wall street from all sections of the country. Kennecott Copper, Anaconda, Bethlehem and Crucible Steel, Standard Oil, Marland, Pan-American Texas Corporation and other high grade industrial stocks replaced their speculative brethern as the leaders in one of the most aggressive forward movements ever seen on the big board at this or any other period in its history.

It was a week of bullish good cheer, of rumors of various kinds from the splitting up of industrial stocks to the "Cotton boy" buying of new stock interests, Sinclair Oil having been added to the acquisitions of that famous investor.

From the Navy viewpoint, a "menace" is any coaling base that doesn't belong to us.

Why all of this fuss about Carnera getting the money? It was collected for the heathen, wasn't it?

Says Open Doe Season Would Be Beneficial

Chief United States Field Naturalist Champions Open Doe Season

COMPLETES SURVEY OF CONDITIONS

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 27.—Vernon Bailey, chief field naturalist of the United States bureau of biological survey, today gave his official benediction to an open season for doe deer in the northeastern counties of Pennsylvania.

It was from that section that most of the opposition to ruling of the state game commission has come. Bailey previously has made an investigation of conditions in Centre and Clearfield counties where the abundance of deer has caused a shortage of forage for them.

Bailey in the detailed report made public today by the state game commission asserted that he is convinced that the proportion of doe deer in the northeastern part of the state is much too large and that an open season will be beneficial to future herds.

Does Predominate.

Specific instances were cited in the report in which large herds of deer had been watched and in which does predominated as much as 20 to 1.

Bailey admitted in the report that he does not know the best proportion between sexes for deer and will not until a more thorough study has been made.

The report said that the damage in the section to crops has been light, chiefly because it is not an agricultural country and also acknowledged there was no shortage of deer forage such as had been found in other counties.

Changes Are Made In War Veterans Burial Expenses

Important changes have been effected in regards to the burial and funeral expenses of deceased war veterans, according to Pat J. Dempsey executive secretary of the Lawrence county chapter of the American Red Cross. Concerning this matter, he has the following to say:

"Legislation enacted by the last congress made important changes relative to the burial, funeral expenses and the transportation of bodies of veterans. A total of $107 is now allowed for the tranportation, funeral and burial expenses in the case of men now serving in the army.

"Regulations covering this matter are very elaborate and in great detail. Payments of these expenses are limited to those whose net assets are not in excess of $1,000, aside from all debts contracted before the death and after the deduction of all exemptions granted under the laws of the state of the veteran's domicile. Regulations also provide for the burial in national cemeteries for bodies of soldiers that are not claimed."

Details of veterans' burial and funeral lexpenses can be had by calling the Red Cross headquarters, where Mr. Dempsey will endeavor to answer all questions pertaining to this subject.

ABE MARTIN — On Keeping Young

A NEVER-FAILIN' EVIDENCE O' SLIPPIN'

Miss Fawn Lippincut contributes quite a lengthy article on keepin' young in th' current issue o' th' Weekly Sliphorn. Miss Lippincut is all o' forty-seven years o' age, an' nobuddy would ever guess her off at over forty-six. Below are some o' th' recipes fer fightin' wrinkles, an' holdin' your own:

Keep on thinkin' about gittin' married some day.

Don't try t' remember who run with Bryan th' second time.

Don't keep a big clock in th' house tickin' off th' precious seconds.

Use cold cream freely, an' if readin' hurts your eyes quit readin'.

Beware o' spectacles.

Treat ole people reverently an' kindly, but don't run around with 'em.

Don't look back, unless you're drivin' a car.

Worry is th' arch enemy o' health an' youthfulness. "Let th' other feller worry" may sound selfish, but jest the same it's a dandy slogan if you want t' keep your teeth, well-rounded knees, graceful neck, an' unfurrowed brow.

One o' th' worst stumblin' blocks t' keepin' young, next t' a housefull o' children, is th' birthday card. Folks that send out birthday cards may mean all right, but they little know th' heartaches they cause. Birthday remembrances are discouragin' an' blightin'. They cause rude awakenin's, an' often cause us t' pause, an' lose interest in th' business at hand. They slow us down jest when we're goin' good. They serve no good purpose. Birthdays are milestones in th' all too brief journey o' life, an' th' sooner they're fergotten th' better. Ther's a feller out in Kansas sends me a birthday card ever' year jest after I've had my neck shaved an' hair evened up an' bought a young lookin' hat. Ther's plenty o' things t' remind us o' th' flight o' time without somebuddy mailin' us a cold-blooded printed statement that were a year older, an' "wishing us a thousan' more happy birthday anniversaries." I allus think I'll watch out fer that Kansas letter an' tear it up without openin' it, but I git caught on it ever' year. Th' best thing about Floridy is that it has no recurrin' seasons t' remind us that time is fleein'. If a circus comes t' town a Floridian don't know whether it's January or June. Ther's no puttin' a straw hat away till next summer, an' no gittin' out th' same ole overcoat ever' fall, an' I don't believe presidential campaigns are as keenly felt in Floridy, an' ther's no hay-making season an' ice-cuttin' time. You never hear nobuddy in Floridy say, "Oh, hell, another October is jest around th' corner." But it seems t' be a part o' th' scheme o' life t' have things bob up t' warn us that th' days an' months an' years are gallopin' by an' t' make th' best o' things while th' makin's good. Payin' cash is a great help in stretchin' th' years out an' conservin' that first-voter's complexion.

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

There is a fund for providing heroes with medals for bravery, but if memory serves right it has to be for dragging some blonde out of the ocean or rescuing a lad who is just going down for the third time. Some such restrictions.

There should be one for folks who have automobiles. And Doc McBride of Lutton street, would get the first one. Stopped in to pass a word or two with him last night and parked the Gas Gurgler at the curb. Now any well behaved car would have stood without being hitched but you don't know the half of this one dearie.

While we were talking inside the store Ed Kemm yelled that the wagon was going haywire with which Doc did a flying dive through the door. Had it not been for his fast work some one would have had to give me a lift to Washington today.

Now if any of you lads in the back seat would ask where the car was headed, I was on my way to the tabernacle.

Credit is a wonderful thing. It builds bridges and banks, moves railroads and gets commerce through the devious channels of finance. It buys newspapers too.

Wanted a paper last night and had to buy one on the street. Didn't have a cent in change when one of the lads on the corner asked me if I wanted one. Told him I didn't have any change but he said he'd take a chance.

Debit three cents. Some day that lad will be a merchant or a credit manager.

Some lads who follow the football team couldn't wait until this morning to go to Washington. They had to shove off Friday night. Wanted to raise a little whoopee down in the Little President's domain.

Folks leave foreign newspapers on the desk occasionally. Some one has left a copy of the Pontypridd Observer, a six column eight page paper printed in Pontypridd, Wales. Probably our papers look as odd to them as theirs do to us and if this is so, the laughs are even. The front page, the "show window" of the American newspaper is largely advertisement. One learns from the front page nothing of the latest murder or the flight of a trans-Atlantic air flight. Rather one learns that Wolsey Underwear is quite the proper thing to wear for ladies and gents. One also learns that Watson's and Co. are operating the Ynysangharad Saw Mills and don't try to pronounce that name if you haven't had your tonsils removed. The moving picture ads show that American pictures are being shown there.

A report of the meeting of the school board carries the information that Headmaster Richard Williams of the Cilfynydd Boys School had retired. No wonder with a name like that.

An interesting paper to be sure, but hardly a model of journalism judging it by American standards. And thanks stranger for leaving it on the desk.

EDENBURG

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones were tendered a miscellaneous shower at their home Thursday evening by their friends. Later a delicious lunch was served. The young couple received a number of pretty and useful gifts. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Blaine McCulough of Poland, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Coates of Struthers, O.

Even in the old days the newspapers printed thrilling and gossipy stories, but they always turned out to be patent medicine ads.

Foster's Weather Forecast

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—A period of severe storms will be expected to cross continent during week centering on October 30; temperatures and precipitation will both average above normal during this storm period, but precipitation will not be expected to be excessive generally, but to occur mostly in small areas of south and central parts of continent. Precipitation that will occur during last week of October and first week of November will be of great value where received as it will furnish the principal subsoil moisture for the winter months.

November Weather Features.

November will be a moderate month generally over the continent, averaging above normal temperatures on north and west slopes and land approaching those slopes. General precipitation of continent will decrease this month and will be below normal. Most precipitation of month will occur more in the nature of local showers than as general rains. Most precipitation will occur near 25 and 2, principally in sections 7, 2 and 6 and in southern half of section 1. First week of month will average warm and wet; cold waves will center on 14 and 26; cold wave near 26 will be severe in sections 1, 2, 4 and 7; moderate storms will center on 11, mild storms centering on 6 and 18, severe storms centering on 25. Excepting areas where moistures will not be sufficient for subsoil during the coming winter, November will average a favorable cropweather month.

A partial eclipse of the sun will occur on November 12 but it will not be visible from any point in North America. To see this eclipse you would have to go to Europe, Western Asia or Northern Africa. If you get up early in the morning however you will be able to see a total eclipse of the moon on November 27; this eclipse can be seen from all points of North America if the weather is clear; it begins at six hours and 25.4 minutes Greenwich civil time which would be 6:25 a. m. at Greenwich. On the east coast of North America this would be 1:25 a. m. and on the west coast it would be 10:25 p. m. of November 26. An eclipse of the sun such as occurs on November 12 is caused by the moon passing between the sun and earth; an eclipse of the moon such as occurs November 27 is caused by the earth passing between sun and moon. The movements of earth and moon relative to the sun have a period of 18.6 years named by ancient astrologers the Saros; as the sun, earth and moon are in the same relative positions and traveling in the same relative directions each 18.6 years, eclipses of sun or moon are visible from the same points on the earth each 18.6 years. Those ancient astrologers who named the Saros period are not credited with knowing the movements of the heavenly bodies; astronomy was not of the sciences of their day; long after the Saros period was named Joshua commanded the sun to stand still.

WAR SECRET

A war secret, closely guarded during the great conflict, is common property now. It comes to public attention with the announcement that Dr. Edward G. Acheson, its originator, is giving science $25,000 as a prize fund.

The secret centered in the process of enabling American guns to shoot 20 per cent farther by spreading Acheson graphite over the inner surface. This graphite was softened marvelously in an electric furnace.

Isn't it queer how matter-of-fact a war secret can seem 10 years after the war?

WOMAN LEADS

Discerning persons admire the one who creates, the one who gives the world something new. In the field of artistic photography a woman is one of the principal creative characters. Best proof of this is that the National Arts club, of New York, revised its constitution to admit Henrietta Hudson, the first photographer ever welcomed into that exclusive organization.

Working in the comfort of her home at Bolton Landing, on Lake George, N. Y., without the facilities of an elaborate studio, Henrietta Hudson produces masterpieces of photographic art. Her work is welcomed in exhibition, in Vienna, London and Paris, as well as in New York.

Perhaps the greatest of Henrietta Hudson's achievements is the invention of direct-color printing of photographs. The accomplishments of this modern woman, including her unequalled landscapes, show the clubtired woman that she, too, can really do something worthwhile. Work is the method.

AIR SPORTS

Wyoming aviators amuse themselves by shooting coyotes from the air. The airmen cruise over the prairie, sight their prey, swoop down and fire. It's great sport—if you don't crash.

BLACK EYES

A Columbia university professor establishes himself as the friend of small boys with an urge to battle their schoolmates. This professor has developed an electrical machine, of which he told the American College of Physical Therapy will remove "black eyes." He says static electricity forces the tiny blood clots, which compose the "black eye," to dissolve. Professional pugilists should be eager to get this professor a permanent place in the Hall of Fame.

Judgin' from th' accident reports, we gotta conclude that after all there aint no such thing as a perfec'ly safe grade rail crossin'.

Americanism: Yearning for some kind of home built around a bath room like the one in the magazine.

The Mark of a Modern Bank
The printed figures of deposits and withdrawals made by National Posting Machines are the mark of a modern banking institution. Safe, accurate and unchangeable, they are a guarantee that the depositor's record and the bank's record are exactly the same. Their advantages extend to depositor, banker and teller and afford a protection and service never before possible.
